Reflecting the Life of Jasper Littlejohn

A Cherished Legacy

Jasper “J. C.” Littlejohn transitioned on July 12th 2022 from this earthly life to his heavenly home at CMC Main Medical Center in Charlotte, North Carolina. Jasper was born May 14th 1947 in Cherryville, North Carolina to the late Mr. Pink and Ester Littlejohn.

J. C. graduated from John Chavis High School in Cherryville, North Carolina on June 1st 1965. On December 6th 1974, he received a Honorable Discharge as a Private E-2 from the United States Army. J. C. attended Cleveland Community Technical Institute and graduated September 9th 1977 with Basic Machine Training. J. C. enjoyed doing volunteer work as he received a Certificate of Appreciation from the Boys Club of America on November 4th, 1979. In addition, he also received a Certificate of Appreciation for his outstanding help with Special Olympics from Eaton Corporation Public Relations Committee on April 19th 1995. After thirty years and one month, he retired from Eaton Corporation on October 31st 2007.

In his spare time, J. C. loved to coach children in sports. He led the Elizabeth Panthers Midgets to the 1998 Championship. J. C. believed in being a hard worker. An example of this, was his Perfect Attendance Award presented to him from Eaton Corporation in 2000. Even with all his dedication to his family and work, he devoted his life to the Lord. J. C. was a firm believer in Christ. He was presented by Pastor John Houze of Peoples Baptist Church in Kings Mountain, NC, a Certificate of Recognition for being an Outstanding Teacher in 2004. Teaching the youth at church was one of the things he was most proud of. He would study for hours just to prepare to teach every Sunday.

In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his sisters; Callie Mae Allison, Ann Alexander and Christine Sweat, his brothers; Charles Littlejohn, Thomas Littlejohn, and James Littlejohn.

J. C. was survived by his children and grandchildren: Carletta Littlejohn, her husband Emmanuel, three children and three grandchildren; Lisa Epps, her husband Robert, two children, Jeffrey Epps, his wife, Kristy, four children; Selma Epps, two children, four grandchildren, Reginald Littlejohn, one child, one grandchild; Javier Littlejohn his wife, Jarqueline five children; and J’Lisa Littlejohn, two children.

J. C. was a loving man, firm in his beliefs, and will be truly missed, but the love he shared will live on forever through the souls he touched and those who choose to follow his lead.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not here to see,
 If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me,
 I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today,
 While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.
 I know how much you loved me, as much as I loved you
 And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.

But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand
 That an angel came, called my name, and took me by the hand.
 And said my place was ready in heaven far above
 And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
 But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eyes.
 I had so much yet to do, it seemed almost impossible that I was leaving you. I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad. I thought of all the love we shared and all the fun we had.
 If I could relive yesterday, I thought for just a while,
 I'd would say goodbye and kiss you, and maybe see you smile.
 But when I fully realized that this could never be
 For emptiness and memories would take the place for me.

So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
 For every time you think of me, I'm right here in you heart.

Note Of Thanks

We appreciate your thoughtfulness and thank you most sincerely.
 Your expression of sympathy and kindness touched our hearts and gave us comfort during this most difficult time.
