

The Road

I lived my life the best I could,
I chose my path just like I should.
The road has ended now you see,
My soul and spirit have been set free.

Those I left behind to mourn,
The ones I've helped and watched be born,
My children I loved and cherished so much,
The ones I leaned on, they were my crutch.

They were there in the past few days,
For the late night visits and overnight stays,
Now I must travel this road alone,
With nothing to carry, just these old bones.

Remember me for the good times and bad.
Remember the smile I always had.
These are the things to remember me for,
I gave all I had and so much more.
