

"When I'm Gone"

*When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile
Forget unkind words I have spoken
Remember some good I have done
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun
Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day
Then forget to grieve for my going
I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay
And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best*

Obituary

Eddie Lee Fowler was born on May 11, 1963. He was the sixth of seven children that were born to Bennie, Sr. and Elizabeth Fowler. Both parents preceded him in death.

The local sports legend was raised in Augusta, Georgia (Sunset Homes). He attended T. W. Josey High School and Central State University. There, he excelled in sports and in education. He became the first entrepreneur in his family.

Eddie married Donna Williams and from this union, he was blessed with a daughter, Ciara.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his siblings, Geraldine, Elizabeth Ann, Elaine, and Tommie.

He leaves to cherish his memories: daughter, Ciara Williams-Fowler; grandson, Aiden Williams-Carter; brothers, Bennie Fowler, Jr. (Kelly), and Jesse Fowler (Linda); special nephew, Johnny Boynton; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members, and friends.
