Obituary

Mr. Eddie "Jim" Lewis Moreland, affectionately called Pop was born on February 15, 1944 to the late Louis and Eva Mae Watts Moreland in Turin, Georgia. On February 7, 2020 at Wellstar West Georgia Medical Center, he departed this earthly world and entered into eternal rest.

At an early age, he joined Pleasant Grove Baptist Church. Jim received his education through the Coweta County School System. In the early 70's, he worked as a transmission mechanic. He later became employed with Southern Bell up until his accident.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents and two sisters.

He leaves to cherish his memories, three sons: Gregory Moreland, Rodney Moreland and Derrick Moreland; two grandchildren: Simone Moreland and Damalas Moreland; three sisters: Hazel Dean, Dorothy Brown and Ida Grier; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends who loved him dearly; Special friends, The Redwine Family.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

Author Unknown

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.
