When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand, that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand.

The angel said my place was ready, in heaven far above, and that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.

But when I walked through Heaven's gates, I felt so much at home, for God looked down, smiled at me, and told me "Welcome Home."

So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.

Acknowledgements

The family greatly acknowledges with appreciation the comforting expressions of sympathy and love extended to us during this period of bereavement. Your thoughtfulness will always be cherished.

Reflection on the Life of Myrtis D. Parks

Generous, kind-hearted, dependable, firm in her beliefs and a jack-of-all-trades; Myrtis was a great daughter, sister, mother, aunt, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend anyone could ever have. Those of us who knew her as a family member or friend recognized these qualities in her. She was firm in her opinions, decisive, and believed in “doing things her way.”

Myrtis Denise Parks was born on October 26, 1957, in Meriwether County to the late Calvin Parks Sr. and Bernice Walton Parks. On Thursday, February 27, 2020, our heavenly father came and welcomed his angel home.

Her father, Calvin Parks Sr. and her sister, Carolyn Curry, preceded her in death.

At an early age, she accepted Christ and joined Springfield Missionary Baptist Church. She had a passion for cooking and baking. She displayed her talents by catering events throughout the community.

She was employed by Callaway Gardens, Mead, and the Meriwether County School System from which she retired.

She leaves to cherish her memories: a loving and caring son Maurice Parks, mother, Bernice Parks, three sisters: Linda Whatley, Elaine Williams, and Robin Strozier, and one brother: Calvin Parks Jr. (Angela). She leaves a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and cousins. In addition, she leaves to cherish four special people who were dear to her heart: Donyetta Ferguson, Mildred Parham, Emma Milner and Johnny Bray.
