Expressions of Gratitude

The family of Mrs. Barbara Jean Deloach would like to extend our deepest appreciation to everyone who showed us love and support during this very trying time. For your kindness, words of consolation, as well as your thoughts and prayers, there aren't enough words to express our gratitude.

Therefore, we will just graciously say "Thank You."

Sincerely
~ The Family ~

Obituary

Mrs. Barbara Jean Deloach, a native of Warm Springs, Georgia is the daughter of Joseph Barnes and the late Ms. Mildred Clements. She was born September 22, 1966 in Warm Springs, Georgia. She departed her life at WellStar Hospice on March 6, 2020. Barbara was preceded in death by her grandmother Frances Clements, Aunts Maybelle Clements, Annette Holmes and her _____ George Clements, Jr. and her close and special friend Kim Wortham.

Barbara later joined Shiloh Baptist Church, where she served faithfully until her health failed.

To know “Tootsie” was to love her, she loved to smile, dance, work and cook, and lit up every room with her presence. She was a 1984 graduate of Manchester High School.

She was employed with Yasufuku, up until her health declined.

She leaves to cherish her memories her father Joseph Barnes of Warm Springs, GA; husband Tod Deloach of Shiloh, GA; son Kendrick Deloach, Sr. (Amanda) of Norfolk, VA; brother Antonio Clements of Warm Springs, GA; sister Jessica Barnes of Atlanta, GA; she has three grandchildren Haley Deloach, Kendrick Deloach, Jr. and Kenneth Deloach; niece Shakirya Clements; nephew Davares Clements; great nephew Graison Copeland; two aunts Alma Clements of Fayetteville, GA, Betty Clements of Warm Springs, GA; uncles Jimmy Clements of Warm Springs, GA, Melvin (Linda) Clements of Lithonia, GA and Cleveland Clements of College Parks, GA; sisters-in-law Tonj (Earnest) Walker of Columbus, GA, Gloria Jean (Roy) Taylor of Shiloh, GA, Jackie West of LaGrange, GA; brothers-in-law Donald Deloach of Manchester, GA, Rickey (Linda) Deloach of Pine Mountain, GA; special friends Lynn Patterson, Phyllis Watson-Reeves, Lois Williams, Shelia White and Angela Jones.

Special thanks to Davita of Warm Springs, GA and WellStar Hospice of LaGrange, GA.
