

Afterglow

I liked the memory of me to be a happy one
 I liked to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done
 I liked to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways
 Of happy times and laughing times and bright sunny days
 I liked the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun
 Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

Acknowledgements

The family express sincere gratitude to everyone. Words are inadequately as to how we feel for all who consoled us during our bereavement.

We would like to commend Florence Hand Nursing Facility and staff, we thank you for your loving care, your cards, calls, flowers and gifts. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we the family of the late Elvenia Arnold, say thank you very much.

THE BROKEN CHAIN

We knew that morning that God was going to call your name,

In life we loved you dearly; in death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone.

For part of us went with you, the day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide,

And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same,

But as God calls us one by one, the CHAIN will link again.
