Obituary

Mother Annie B. Lyons Hardnett was born August 16, 1927 in Meriwether county, Georgia to the late Homer Lyons and Rosie Clements Lyons. She was one of five siblings, three preceded her in death: Ollie Mae, Hattie, and Leila Lyons.

Annie B. was joined in marriage to the late Willie Hardnett and to this union one son was born, Emmett Hardnett. She worked in her home as a housewife and mother to her son and stepchildren.

At an early age Annie accepted Christ into her life and joined Arbor Chapel United Methodist Church where she attended regularly until her health began to fail.

She loved to call family and friends to ask how they were doing and was always asking about others from the community. She loved her son and grandson dearly and was very protective of them like a momma bird.

Early Sunday morning on December 27th Annie transitioned from this life into eternal rest.

She leaves to cherish her memory one son, Emmett Hardnett of Greenville, GA. Five stepchildren: Bobby Hardnett (Billie) of Woodbury, GA, Willie Hardnett of Forest Park, Ga., Larry Hardnett (Alberta) of Conyers, Ga., Scottie Hardnett of Gray, Ga., and Burnette Johnson of Dayton, OH. One sister: Jimmie Hudson of Harris City, Ga. Two grandsons: Quadratus Parham and Marquis Rhodes and two great grandchildren: Daija and Tae. Four nieces: Minnie, Rosa, Nicole, and Angela. And five nephews: Willie Floyd, Homer, Dewayne, Randolph, and Travis as well as a host of other relatives and friends that will miss her presence.

23rd Psalm

*The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest
a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.*
