

Our Hero

You were our hero
 In our army, our most trusted and faithful Knight
 Under your protective covering
 We never knew fear or darkness-only light
 You were our Dad, Husband, Grandpa
 Our Giant, our friend
 There is no one who can replace your presence
 No one could ever take your place
 To know you are in heaven
 Is our only saving grace.
 To say we love and will miss you
 Is something most understated
 But this earth could never hold
 A warrior of your status.
 So, sleep on Dad, Husband, Grandpa, and friend
 You lived and died our Giant and Hero
 To the End.
 We love you

Obituary

Clarence Roger Jackson (a.k.a. Peter to family, C. R. to coworkers), was born June 26, 1934 in Meriwether County Georgia to the late Clarence and Opie Lee Jackson. He was educated in the Meriwether County School System. He transitioned from this life on January 23, 2021.

He served faithfully at the Clarks Chapel United Methodist Church in Luthersville, Georgia for years as a steward, and served as Chairman of the Administrative Board until 2014.

He had several jobs in his early years that he loved to tell stories about until he found his place at Georgia Power, where he worked for 35 years and retired as a Locomotive Operator. He was also an entrepreneur, a farmer, as well as a driver for the Meriwether County School System. He retired after 13 years of service.

Clarence R. Jackson married Carrie Lee Johnson-Jackson June 11, 1955. From this union they were blessed with 4 daughters: Phyllis (Ronnix) Sherrer, Lesia (Amos) Martin, Stephanie Ward, Veronica (Gill) Dailey II. He leaves eight grandchildren to cherish his memory: Brandon (Latasha) Bugg, Sabrina (LaRon) Campbell-Jackson, Anissa Sherrer, Kelsey Dailey, Jackson Dailey, Kenzel Ward, Samone Dailey, and Jordan Ward, and 2 great grandchildren: Brelle Bugg, and Demi Campbell-Jackson.

In addition, he leaves to cherish his siblings: Willie James Jackson, Louis (Jacquelyn) Jackson, Rev. Lowinston (Gwendolyn) Jackson, Willie Frank (Zeffler) Jackson, Allen (Hazel) Jackson, Virginia Lee Jackson, Regina Jackson, Hazel Jackson, and Melissa Darlene Banks. Preceding him in death were his siblings: Iona Taylor, Levi Jackson, Lawrence Jackson, Rufus Jackson, and Maynard Jackson. He also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.
