

A CELEBRATION OF LIFE FOR

Ms. Olivia King Jordan

Olivia Jordan, was born August 2, 1956 to the late James and Mary King of Buena Vista, Georgia. She was also preceded in death by one brother Elijah Pugh and a sister Gloria King. She left her earthly home to be with her heavenly father on June 4, 2020. She was educated in the Buena Vista Georgia school system, after which she joined the United States Army. Where she served for three years and honorably discharged. She further went on to pursue a career in cosmetology and became an instructor and later she became the founder of O.J.'s Barbershop, Fashion Zone Clothing Store and a Fish Market. Olivia leaves memories that will forever be printed on the hearts of many. Those memories to leave to be cherished are for her two sons Jameel Jordan and Charvis Jordan along with her daughter-in-law Darreana Jordan all of Columbus, Ga. She also leaves four brothers, Arthur James Pugh of Atlanta, Ga, Willie James King of New York, Melvin and David King of Columbus, Ga, sisters to include Loretta Roberson, Mary Harris, Maude Bruce of Columbus, GA, Doris King of Augusta, GA, Chessie Davis of St. Mary's, GA and a very devoted neice Arlena Baker of Columbs, Ga and a host of neices, nephews, cousins and friends.