

MOTHER

Mother, you were just a girl,
so many years ago.
You had your loves and had your dreams,
you watched us come and go.
You watched us make the same mistakes,
that you had made before.
But that just made you hold us tight,
and love us all the more.
We haven't always thought about the things that you have seen.
To us you've just been "Mother", no thought of who you've been.
But we remember now in love,
your life from start to end.
And we're just glad we knew you,
As Mother, and as Friend.

Lovingly submitted,
Your children

IF ROSES GROW IN HEAVEN

If roses grow in Heaven
Lord, please pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my grandma's arms
and tell her they're from me.

Tell her that I love her and miss her so
and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for a while.

Remembering my grandma is easy,
I do it every day.
But there's an ache within my heart
That will never go away.

Love,
Danielle-- "forever your Baby-Girl"

Obituary

Mildred Lou Winfield Horton’s journey through life began on September 14, 1943--born to Mr. Rufus Winfield and Mrs. Eunice Dunn Winfield in Lee County, Alabama.

Mildred was a dedicated mother, first and foremost. She treasured her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren and embraced every moment with them. She loved to love on people and made friends everywhere. Mildred was a model of love, generosity, and compassion. She was a hardworking woman and worked tirelessly in every career she endeavored.

She was a praying woman. Her favorite scripture was Psalm 23 and her favorite song was “Sinner’s Prayer” by Dietrick Hadden. She was a member of Church of God in Columbus, Georgia.

She was preceded in death by: her husband, James Willie Horton; her parents, Rufus Winfield and Eunice Dunn Winfield; sons, Vincent James Horton and Michael Bernard Winfield; brothers, Charles Winfield, Sydney Winfield, Curtis Winfield, and Robert Winfield; sisters, Lila Pitts and Glennie Mae “Penny” Dent. Mildred Winfield Horton departed this life on Thursday, January 19, 2023 at Piedmont Regional Midtown Hospital in Columbus, Georgia.

She leaves to cherish her memories: two daughters, Elizabeth (Gregory) Murray, Valdosta, GA and Juanita Winfield, Columbus, GA; three sons, Willie (Monica) Horton, Columbus, GA, Daniel (Tashara) Horton, Houston, TX and Terry Horton, Orlando, FL; 22 grandchildren; 36 great-grandchildren; siblings, Lottie (David) Floyd, Valley, AL, Minnie Hollis and Johnny Winfield both of Columbus, GA and Ruby Parson, Austin, TX; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
