Obituary

Annie Kate Pooler, better known to all as Mama Ann, Aunt Ann, and Mommy, was born June 15, 1953 in Lone Oak, Georgia to the late Mr. and Mrs. John (Eudora) Pinson.

She was the third daughter out of the six Pinson children. To know Mama Ann was a pleasure, as well as a joy, because you never knew what you were getting. It could be a home cooked meal, a place to lay your head, a babysitter, or just a good ol' cussing out; but whatever you got, you took with pride because you knew it came from Mama Ann. To know Mama Ann, you had to know Kenny Henry Ellis, her pride and joy; riding partner of thirty-five years, better known as her better half.

On Tuesday, December 14, 2021 at 1 pm, Mama Ann gained her heavenly wings at her home. Unknown to many, the last six months had been a journey but she fought as hard as she could or as much as she could, until she took her last breath in the presence of her caregivers Kenny Ellis and her granddaughter Jamica Wheelous who only left her side to eat, sleep, and prepare for the next day; all without a frown or regret.

Preceding her in death, a daughter Girl Pooler, sister Clara Pinson, brother Earl Pinson, niece Sherise Malone, and grandson Cortez Pooler Snelling.

She leaves to cherish her memory, partner Kenneth Ellis; daughter Carmen (Jamie) Wheelous; son Tyrone (Kim) Pooler and son Hubert (Christine) Pooler; Grandchildren: Kernika Sewell, Jamica Wheelous, Jamie Wheelous, Carneisha Snellings, Jamie Wheelous Jr., Carmelo Pooler, Desmond Pooler, Jordin Pooler, Carmecia Pooler, Christian Pooler and four great-grandchildren: Mason Alford, Madison Sewell, Jayceon Blount, and Janyla Blount; sisters Gennise Pinson, Deborah (Dennis) Lowe; brother John Pinson; A host of nieces, nephews, family, and friends. A special thanks to her nieces Tisa Wright and Johnika Hudson, Goddaughter Kim Wheelous and special caregiver from the start, Tatiyana Farrow.

Her Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of her as gone away, her journey's just begun
Life holds so many facets, this earth is only one.

Just think of her as resting from the sorrow and the tears

In a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days or years.

Think how she must be wishing that we could know today

How nothing but our sadness, can really pass away.

And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched

For nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much.

The family of the late Annie K. Pooler would like to thank you very much for your prayers, visits, calls, food, and all other expressions of love you have shown. We appreciate you so much. You just don't know how at times you made a big thing seem so little to us. We extend a special thanks to Five Star Healthcare, LLC of Manchester, Georgia, Kindred Hospice of Newnan, Georgia, and the St. Paul CME family. A special thanks goes out to the nurses that took care of her from Kindred Hospice: Josh, Jessica, and Constance. We extend our thanks to all of you. We love you and could not have asked for better people in Mama Ann's life.
