

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and summer days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave
When life is done.

In Appreciation
Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a flower piece, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you said the kindest words, that any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much!

— MILDRED L. WILLIAMS —

THE SUN RISES

Sister Mildred L. (Booker) Williams was born in Pavo, Georgia, on Tuesday, December 28, 1948, to Deacon John S. and Overseer Lovely Mae (Thomas) Booker (both deceased).

THE SUN SHINES

Born the last of ten children, Mildred, affectionately known as "Milk" by family, attended kindergarten through high school in Quitman, Georgia. Upon graduating, she enrolled at Albany State University, and earned her BA degree in Business Education. She graduated in the top 10% of her graduating class, which earned her induction into Who's Who in American Colleges and University Honors. She furthered her education at Governors State University, University Park, Illinois, where she earned a double MA in Business Education and Education Administration.

In 1970, she met and married her college sweetheart, Fred Williams, and to their union were born sons, Dwayne and Timothy.

She dedicated her professional life to being an educator. Mildred taught Business Education courses at Brooks County High School in Quitman, Georgia; Seneca High School in Louisville, Kentucky; Enid High School in Enid, Oklahoma; retiring from her amazing thirty-four years of teaching in 2005 at the Rich East High School in Park Forest, Illinois.

Mildred loved family, teaching, shopping, decorating her home for all the holidays, and attending church. Her hobbies included reading, gardening, singing, and traveling. Some of her international trips included: Acapulco, Mexico; Montego Bay, Jamaica; Freeport, Grand Bahama; London, England; Malaga, Spain; and Tangier, Africa.

THE SUN SETS

On October 27, 2022, at the Fayetteville Center for Nursing and Healing in Fayetteville, Georgia, Mildred answered the Lord's call and joined her parents (listed above), and siblings that proceeded her including brothers, John L. Roscoe, W. Mack, and W. Paul Booker, and sisters, Essie Mae Samuels, Maydel Davis, Eloise Richardson, and Mary B. Lee.

She leaves to mourn her passing a loving and devoted family: husband, Fred Williams; sons, Frederick D. (Pamela) of ElkrIDGE, MD, and Timothy A. of Dallas, TX; two beautiful grandchildren, Lauryn M. Williams and Jonathan M. Williams; sister, Emma Grace Swain of Brockton, MA; sister-in-law, Nadine Booker of Pavo, GA; three brothers-in-law, Calvin Williams of Saginaw, MI, Frank Williams of Fayetteville, GA, and Thomas S. Lee, Jr., of Orlando, FL; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
