

*I'm There Inside
Your Heart*

Right now I'm in a different place

And though we seem apart

I'm closer than I ever was,

I'm there inside your heart.

I'm with you when you greet each day

And while the sun shines bright

I'm there to share the sunsets, too

I'm with you every night.

I'm with you when the times are good

To share a laugh or two,

And if a tear should start to fall

I'll still be there for you.

And when that day arrives

That we no longer are apart,

I'll smile and hold you close to me,

Forever in my heart.

Acknowledgement

The family of Rosetta Thompson would like to thank everyone for their kind expressions of love and thoughtfulness shown to us during this difficult time. Your phone calls, visits, flowers, food, thoughts, and prayers have all helped greatly during our time of bereavement. We would like to express sincere gratitude to her caregiver, Rose Marie Dean, for over ten years of devoted caregiving. Also, a special thanks to Tiffany Jackson, Geraldine Parks, Barbara Ann Williams, Constance Bell, and the entire staff at Kindred/Gentiva Hospice of Newnan, Georgia. May God continue to bless each of you, is our prayer!

Obituary

Rosetta Foster Thompson was born on March 29, 1936, to the late Ravie and Pallie Mae Foster in Meriwether County. She was preceded in death by her son Hosie Lee Thompson; parents; brothers, Edward Lee, Leon, Jessie Lee; sisters, Georgia Bell Swanson and Geraldine (Judy) Foster; two granddaughters Semira Ayers, and Marlena Snelling.

Rosetta (Rose) received her education in the Meriwether County school system. On February 2, 1952, Rose married the love of her life, Hosiah Thompson, Sr. For many years she worked in the textile industry. Some of her hobbies were sewing, decorating, gardening, cooking, traveling, and visiting family and friends. Rose also enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren.

At an early age, Rose became a member of Zion Hill Missionary Baptist Church, where she loved to praise and worship the Lord. She later joined the senior choir, where she was an active member until her health declined.

Rosetta will be greatly missed by and leaves to cherish so many wonderful memories: devoted husband, Hosiah Thompson, Sr., and her children, Patricia Ann (LeRoy) Parks, Marvin (Lynn) Snelling, Joanne Parks, Sharon (Bobby) Bussey, Sylvia Arnold, Hosiah Thompson, Jr., Berlinda McIntyre and Angelia (Gerald) Irving; her brothers, Willie Frank (Thelma) and James Wesley Foster; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives, friends, and many children she loved as her own.
