Obituary

John Lewis Wilson was a native of Roanoke Alabama. Born to Louise and Eddie B. Cameron June 21, 1942. He answered God's call on February 20, 2023. He was the oldest of 4 children. Rosie Mae, Eddie Wilson and Ronald Cameron. John Lewis attended Randolph County Training School and graduated class of 1960. He married his classmate Sandra Shealy December 24, 1962. They soon moved to Atlanta Georgia and had 3 children. Stephanie (preceded in death), Christina and Kendrick. John and Sandra also raised their grandchildren, Lushandra and Adam. The Wilson house was full of grandchildren, Maurice, Kirsten, Markus (Aderaylen) and Angel and great grandchildren, Gabrielle, Alden, Genesis and Skylar. John was a firm and loving parent and expected the children to always do their best. John and Sandra were married for 50 years before Sandra's death in February 18, 2012.

John and Bridgette were married in holy matrimony on July 3, 2012. The 2 families were blended to form a strong bond. John and Bridgette moved to Greenville Georgia and started their life together on "Wilson" Acres. They planted a large garden every year which was John's passion.

John worked for ACD Glass for 15 years before moving to Atlanta Contract Glazing where he worked as a fabricator for 19 years. The owner of the company, Sandy Johnson describes John as a doer, gentleman, craftsman, excellent in his work, producer of quality work. Sandy says, there has been no one to replace him.

John attended Ben Hill Christian Church for 50 plus years as a Deacon, Elder, bus driver, all around helper in the church where ever needed. John was a constant support to Minister Poole and Assistant Minister Robbie Pate. The children loved John's sense of humor and they all called him "Daddy."

John was a president of Ways and Lakes Family Reunion for many years. This helped the Ways-Lakes grow to where it is today.

To know John is to love him. John made each person feel special, loved and welcome in his presence.

You will always be

The choice I never had to make,

The question I never asked,

The dream I never dreamt,

The star that will never fall,

The part of me I needed to see,

You are the one that will live on in me Endlessly
