Life's Reflections

*Mrs. Hattie Margaret

was born on April 3, 1941, to parents, Jim Henry and Annie Margaret Strickland, in Chambers County, Alabama. She departed this life on May 27, 2018, at Well-Star West Georgia Medical Center in LaGrange, Georgia.

Hattie accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior in 1974, and joined Bethlehem Baptist Church in West Point, GA.

She received her formal education in the West Point School System. After many years of service, Hattie retired from the West Point-Pepperell, Lanett Mill.

Hattie met and united with Wilbert Joe Gilliam. From this union, they were blessed with four children.

Along with her parents, Hattie was preceded in death by one son, Gregory Lamorris Strickland Gilliam; five brothers, Clifford Holloway, Henry Strickland Jr., Robert Strickland, Gene Strickland and Walter Sanford Strickland; and a sister, Emma Lee Wright.

Hattie enjoyed life and spending quality time with her children, grandchildren and other family. To know her was to love her. Her radiant smile will be greatly missed.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her children, Sabrina Renae Gilliam, Terry Andre Gilliam, and Loretta Hope (John T.) Gilliam, all of West Point, GA; five grandchildren, Enrique, Christopher, Natori, Devanna and Kyle; eight great-grandchildren; a loving sister, Willie Mae Strickland; three sisters-in-law, Dorothy Gilliam, Anita Huguley and Bessie Billingslea; one brother-in-law, Tommy Gilliam, Sr.; a very special nephew, Vincent M. Hurston; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.
