

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

*5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

A LIFE REMEMBERED

JOHN A. MCCORMACK

NOVEMBER 28, 1940 - JANUARY 26, 2020

John Albert McCormack, 79, of Sedalia, MO, passed away at his home on Sunday, January 26, 2020. He was surrounded by family and friends who mourn his passing, but celebrate his life.

John was born on Nov. 28, 1940 in East St. Louis, IL, a son of Charles E. and Marie (Drum) McCormack. He graduated from Dupou, IL Community High School in 1959. During high school he played basketball, baseball, ran track and lettered in cross country.

On June 9, 1960, in Sedalia, MO, he was united in marriage to Patricia D. Cougill. John and Patty had seven children, five boys and two girls. Patricia passed away December 15, 1993.

On August 1, 2015, in Greenridge, MO, he was united in marriage to Lori Argon who survives of the home.

John led a life of service and faith. He was an airman in the U.S. Air Force from 1959 until honorably discharged in 1963. He was a deacon of First Christian Church of Sedalia and was most recently a member of the First United Methodist Church. He volunteered with the Sedalia Police Dept. and enjoyed providing security and crowd control for local events. He was a member and past president of the Sedalia Dinner club and a member of the Street Wolves Car Club.

John saw value in the work of the Masons helping children with medical needs and dedicated many years of his life to this organization. He was a member of Raytown Lodge 391 and Sedalia Granite Lodge 236 where he served three terms as Worshipful Master. He was a member of the Scottish Rites of Sedalia and Kansas City; and the Ararat Shrine Temple of Kansas City. He was also a member of the Sedalia Shrine Club and a past president of the Shrine Fun Kor.

John loved the sunshine and spending time outdoors camping, boating and fishing with his son, Charles. He enjoyed traveling, watching sports and dancing. His favorite movies starred Clint Eastwood and John Wayne, and he spent many hours watching reruns of his favorite TV show MASH.

John adored every member of his family. He is survived by two sons, Charles (Mona) McCormack of Sedalia, MO; Patrick (Cindy) McCormack of Blue Springs, MO; and two daughters, Penny (Bobby) Yach of Gillette, WY; and Vickey (Shawn) Clark of Sedalia, MO. He is also survived by twelve grandchildren and nineteen great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his first wife Patricia, his brother, Charles William McCormack and three sons, John McCormack Jr, Michael McCormack and Bryan McCormack.
