

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

*3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.*

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

*5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

*Please stay seated following service, allowing funeral home staff to dismiss guests.
For your safety, please use headlights and hazards during the procession to the cemetery. Thank you.*

A LIFE REMEMBERED

OCTOBER 28, 1951 - OCTOBER 6, 2019

Gary Stephen Gill

Gary Stephen Gill, 67, of Otterville, MO, passed away Sunday, October 6, 2019 at Nemaha County Hospital, Auburn, NE. He was born on October 28, 1951 in Freemont, NE the son of Gerald D. and Martha Pauline (Sims) Gill, who preceded him in death.

On May 28, 1977 in Dickinson, TX he was united in marriage to Anna Lynn Byers, who resides in the home.

Gary served his country honorably in the United States Army during the Vietnam War. He was also an educator and an opportunity provider for those with hopes, dreams, and aspirations. Although a business teacher, he directed plays in the high schools he taught. He loved teens and loved the opportunity to allow them to grow. He had a passion for baseball and for living life in a way that was honorable and full. Gary always did his best to take life's issues seriously, while using his irreverent sense of humor to never take himself too seriously. He was an accomplished writer, publishing two books, "Gold Pieces" and "The Wizard In Me". He was a family man who loved his wife, children, grandchildren and was proud of his extended family.

Besides his wife, he is survived by eight children, David Gill, Matthew Gill, Eric Gill, Brittany Gill, Natalie Byers, Alyssa Byers-Hoskins, Vanessa Byers, and Leandra Byers; ten grandchildren; and a brother, Jim Gill of Sedalia.

In addition to his parents he was preceded in death by a brother, Terry Gill.
