Acknowledgments

What a mighty God we serve. To God be the glory! There is such comfort in knowing that we are not alone. God is with us, and the assurance of His blessings is manifested in the warm and sincere expressions of sympathy shown to us by family and friends. We are especially appreciative for the fervent prayers whispered in our behalf. May God continue to bless and keep you.

YOUNG

MARCH 24, 1952 * MAY 31, 2021

REMEMBER ME

Remember me in quiet days, while raindrops whisper on your pane. But in your memories have no grief, let just the joy we knew remain.
Remember me when evening stars look down on you with steadfast eyes. Remember if once you wake to catch a glimpse of red sunrise. And when your thoughts do turn to me, know that I would not have you cry. But live for me and laugh for me, when you are happy, so am I. Remember an old joke we shared; remember me when spring walks by. Think once of me when you are glad, and while you live, I shall not die.

Obituary

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

NELSON YOUNG

NELSON YOUNG was born on March 24th, 1952. He was the fourth of seven children, born to parents Richard and Vera Young. Nelson was born, raised, and educated in Bullock County.

He graduated from Bullock County Technical High School. After high school, Nelson joined the Air Force Reserve. Upon leaving the military, he continued his education at Tuskegee Institute to become an Industrial Electrician. During this time, he received an award for Outstanding Young Apprentice. Nelson then completed additional training to become a Journeyman.

Nelson traveled all over the United States working in different cities, with several notable projects such as the New York Subway, Times Square, Louisiana Nuclear Plants and the Super Conductor Super Collider in Texas.

Nelson retired as an electrician and started his own business in auto and collision repair. He loved working on and restoring cars.

Nelson was preceded in death by both parents, along with brothers Carl and Billie Young.

He leaves to cherish his memory, one son, Nelson Todd Young, one daughter, Brittney Young, a granddaughter Ava Marie, four siblings, Carolyn Young, Johnnie Young, Jane Young-Ellison, Evelyn (Phillip) Thornton, and several nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

PRECIOUS MEMORIES

In Memory of a Wonderful

Brother

I hold onto our memories
The ones that are so near
To try to keep you always close
Now you are not here
You were called, it was your time
But it is so true
You have left a legacy
There was no one like you

You were very special
And I want to say
I feel lost in many ways
You are not here today
But I will never forget you
And I know I have been blessed
To have you for my Brother
Because you were the best...
