ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a flower piece, If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you said the kindest words,
That any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much -
Whatever the part.

Celebrating the Life of

Queen Nell Tolbert Lassiter

Queen Nell Tolbert Lassiter was born May 23, 1953, in Bullock County, Alabama, to the late Jimmie Lee Tolbert, Sr. and Ann Bell Tolbert. She departed this life on February 18, 2022.

Queen accepted Christ at an early age and joined the St. John AME Church in Union Springs, Alabama under the leadership of Reverend B. F. Thomas. Here, she served as an usher there for many years. She later moved her membership to Nebraska Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Gerald Sanders and continued to serve under the leadership of Reverend James Sullen Sr. She served as an usher until her health declined.

Queen attended Merritt Jr. High in Midway, Alabama and Carver High School in Union Springs, Alabama. Queen was employed with the Hill Top Grill for several years, before retiring.

The 80's, known for something "new and exciting", proved to be just that for Queen, because it was a wonderful day in the 80's when she was swept off her feet by the love of her life, Roy (Lil Car) Lassiter. Queen and Roy shared a long and loving life until his demise.

Queen was preceded in death by her parents, Jimmy and Annie Bell Tolbert, Sr.; her husband, Roy A. Lassiter Sr.; daughter, Laura A. Tolbert, brother, Jimmy L. Tolbert, Jr.; three grandchildren; Kelvin Ellis, Jr., Shanya Ellis, and Lauren Lassiter; and special nephew, Derek A. Tolbert.

Queen leaves to cherish her precious memories: 9 children: Ray (Tara) Tolbert, Sr. of Clewinston, Florida, Jennifer L. Purifoy, Laquita (Taurus) Lassiter, both of Union Springs, Alabama, Alyesia (Kelvin) Ellis Sr. of Opelika, Alabama, Jessie (Patricia) Lassiter of Suffolk, Virginia, Gwendolyn and Joanene Lassiter, both of San Antonio, Texas, Roy (Tommie Gail) Lassiter Jr. of Montgomery, Alabama and Lawrence Lassiter Sr. of Shorter, Alabama; two sisters: Elegertha T. Chesson of Shorter, Alabama and Patricia (Tyrone) Tarver, Sr. of Tuskegee, Alabama; one brother, Otis Tolbert Sr. of Union Springs, Alabama; one sister in law Jennifer Y. Tolbert of Clewinston, Florida; 31 grandchildren, two she reared as her own, Cedric (Marja) Tolbert and Kymbra'anna (Justin Ford) Tolbert both of Union Springs, Alabama; 25 great grandchildren; two special nephews: Tyrone (Maleatha) Tarver, Jr and Timothy (Anita) Bedgood; a special cousin, Richard (Sam) Addison; special friends: Mark Harvey, Quamie Richardson, Henry Rosado, Brenda Chang, Dontanice Armer and Veronica Wilson; and a host of nieces and nephews and other family members and friends.

Committal

If roses grow in Heaven
Lord, please pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my mother's arms
and tell her they're from me.

Tell her that I love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for awhile.

Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
but there's an ache within my heart
that will never go away.
