DEACON

MARION HICKS

March 30, 1934 ~ January 27, 2023

DEACON
MARION HICKS

A CELEBRATED LIFE

On Friday, January 27, 2023 in Atlanta, Georgia, Marion answered the call of God.

Deacon Marion Hicks was the son of the late Arnie C. Owens and James Carter, born March 30, 1934 in Union Springs, Alabama. He received his education in the Bullock County School upon completion, he moved to New York.

Marion was united in holy matrimony to the love of his life for 65 years, Annie Lucille (Christian) Hicks. After two months of being apart, God wanted them together again.

Marion was preceded in death by his parents; the love of his life, wife, Annie L. Hicks; son, Ronald Hicks; grandson, Jermain Hicks; brothers: Jimmy L. Hicks and J.D. Owens, Jr.; sisters: Betty Louise Owens, Thelma L. Wilson, and Jessie D. Williams.

Marion's memories will be cherished by his 3 children: daughters: Shirley (Michael) Daniels and Gina Marie (John) Aponte; and son, Walter Tarber; 3 granddaughters: Teneil Daniels and Coty Daniels, and Aaliah DeVico; 5 sisters: Lilly Holly, Lois Lane, Ethel (Edward) Adams, Addie Owens, and Dillye Jackson; special nephews and caregivers: Myron Christian and Ricardo Newby, Sr.; favorite nephew, Gary Hicks; special friends: Richard High and Reginald Freeman.

I'M AT REST

Think of me as one at rest. For me you should not still weep. I have no pain, no troubled thoughts, for I am just asleep. The living thinking me that was--is now forever still. And life goes on without me now as time forever will. If your heart is heavy now because I'm gone away; dwell not long upon it friend for none of us can stay. Those of you who liked me, I sincerely thank you all. And those of you who loved me, I thank you most of all. And in my fleeting life span as time went rushing by; I found some time to hesitate, to laugh, to love, to cry. Matters it now if time began, if time will ever cease? I was here, I used it all and now I am at peace.
