Reflections of Cora's Life

This is what the LORD says, your Redeemer, who formed you in the womb: I am the LORD, who has made all things. On February 23, 1923 Reverend Leroy and Beatrice Smith was blessed with a beautiful baby girl Cora Beatrice Smith. She later became known to many as "Aunt Cora".

At an early age, Cora gave her life to Christ. She joined Mt. Silla Missionary Baptist Church, where she ministered through her gift of cooking, serving in the capacity of chairperson of the Hospitality Committee for many years. Her contagious smile affected all she encountered.

Cora received her education from boarding school at the Booker T. Washington High School in Montgomery, AL. She took up the trade of cooking and homemaking. She was employed with the Jordan Family in Union Springs, AL for many years. She retired from the Union Springs OCAP Headstart after numerous years of diligently preparing meals for the students.

Cora was known to many for her scrumptious lemon supreme cakes, distinctive cheese straws and a compassionate heart to help many. On any given day, you could find her sitting on her porch completing puzzles, sitting in her favorite chair watching television. She was adamant Atlanta Braves Baseball fan.

God saw the road was getting rough, the hills were hard to climb, God saw she was getting weary, she went be with the Lord on Thursday, January 31, 2019. Cora was preceded in death by her parents, sister Jimmie G. Smith, two brothers, Tommie Lee Smith and Johnny Lee Smith.

She leaves behind to cherish her legacy, a devoted nephew, whom she reared as her own, Charles Smith, Union Springs, AL; five nephews: David (Donna) Smith, Union Springs, AL, Raymond (Gloria) Smith, Montgomery, AL, Watt Smith, Dayton, Ohio, Joseph (Susie) Smith, Alex, VA, Joel (Jacque) Smith, Ellenwood, GA. Four nieces, Lovie Bernard, Union City, GA; Ella Mae Johnson, Lisa Turpin and Chequetta Green, Union Springs, AL; a great-nephew, whom she admired dearly, Dr. Orlando Johnson, Union Springs, AL, twogod-daughters, Britanny Stone, Birmingham, AL and Ashely Glaze, Union Springs, AL, devoted & caring neighbors, Evelyn Davis and Walter Davis, Union Springs, AL, a special friend and coworker, Yvonne Russell, Union Springs, AL a devoted caregiver, Frostie Williams, Union Springs, AL and a host of great-nieces and nephews.
