

A CELEBRATION OF LIFE

I have fought
the good fight,
I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

Pastor Leslie Holloway, Jr., Eulogist
Oak Grove Baptist Church

Mrs. Carla Lang, 72, transitioned to her heavenly home on September 10, 2020 at her residence in Ivor, Virginia.

Carla was born in Portsmouth, Virginia to the late Edward Brown and the late Annie Mae Brown Dennis on January 12, 1948. A 1966 graduate of I. C. Norcom High School in Portsmouth, Virginia, Carla married James Lang on April 9, 1982. In 1998, Carla retired from the Norfolk Naval Shipyard in 1998, after 25 years of employment as a Sheet Metal Mechanic. Carla was an active member of Oak Grove Baptist Church (Wakefield, VA), where she participated in the Women's Ministry. Carla faithfully served the Lord and especially enjoyed teaching Sunday School, praising her Savior and sharing the gospel. Towards the end of her journey she often quoted Philippians 1:21, "For me, to live is Christ, to die is gain." Carla stayed active by planting flowers and exercising at the YMCA. She loved preparing meals with "good flavor" for family and friends and was well known for her delicious macaroni and cheese.

Left to cherish wonderful and treasured memories of Carla are: James Lang, her husband; loving daughter and sons, Samantha King (Broderick) of South Boston, VA, Charles Peters III and James Lee, both of Ivor, VA. Also cherishing their memories are stepdaughters, LaBarbara Brown and Deborah Williams; her sister, Martha E. Darden and brother, Larry Dennis (Carolyn); two grandsons, Charles Peters IV and Josiah King; and a very special family friend -- her "bonus daughter", Tracy Holoman; along with a host of uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces and cousins. Carla will also be dearly missed by countless extended family members, the Peters family and friends.

To My Sister Carla,

Until we meet again,
Those special memories of you will always bring a smile.
If only I could have you back for just a little while,
And we could sit and talk again just like we used to do.
You always meant so very much to me and always will too.
The fact that you are no longer here will always cause me pain;
But you're forever in my heart,
Until we meet again.

With all my love,
Your sister Mot

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The family wishes to express sincere appreciation to the many family and friends for their acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy in our time of bereavement. Your countless prayers, cards, and visits will always be remembered. Our prayer is that God will continue to bless and keep each of you.

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.
