

For some you shined near, for some you shined from afar You never stopped shining, you were our brightest star

Like a light you brightened every heart you touched, Maybe that's why we miss you so much

Your selfless giving, you always went the extra mile You took care of us all, and never lost your smile

The moments we've shared, the love and the laughter You're in God's hands now, and we'll see you in the hereafter

We'll never forget your kindness and compassion, But most of all, we'll remember all your high fashion

You were a mother, sister, grandmother, niece, cousin, and friend
We miss you, but we know we will see you again

In the coming days as we try to heal from our scars, We'll look towards Heaven and remember our brightest star
