

Until We Meet Again

*A mother, a grandmother, an aunt, a friend too,
This is the legacy we have from you.*

*You taught us love and how to fight,
You gave us strength; you gave us might.*

*A stronger person will be hard to find,
And in your heart, you were always kind.*

*For all of us, you gave your best,
Now time has come for you to rest.*

*Go in peace, you have earned your sleep,
Your love in our hearts, we will eternally keep.*

*We hold you close within our hearts,
To walk with us throughout our lives,
Until we see you again.*

Obituary

Hattie Mae Carrington-Adams was born to the late Howard Carrington and Lula Mitchell-Carrington on February 27, 1935. She gained her heavenly wings and departed her earthly life on December 5, 2019.

Hattie Mae's early childhood began in Grantville County, NC. Subsequently, her family moved to Fuquay Springs, NC, where she attended Wake County school. Hattie worked at Gerber Child Products for over 30 years. She ended her working career at Windsor Pointe as a Certified Nursing Assitant in 2008.

Hattie was a devoted mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She was a beloved member of the St. Augusta Missionary Baptist Church, where she served on the motherboard for a number of years. She was preceded in death by: husband, Grant Adams; daughter, Linda Holland (John); sisters, Sallie Daye (Travis) and Beatrice Estes (Berkley); and brothers, Elijah Carrington (Christine), William Carrington (Aslen), James Carrington (Tiny), Leroy Carrington (Virginia), and Avis Carrington. We will miss her frank advice, sharp honesty, and her delicious meals.

She leaves to cherish her memories and mourn for her passing: two sons, Dwight Bullock and Michael McLeod (Irene McLeod); daughter, Barbara Hasan (Nathaniel Hasan); grandchildren, Erica, Bronta, Joseph, Felicia, Natoiya, Aqila (Willie), Bilal, and Ayesha (Kyle); great-grandchildren, Jeremy, Malik, Markus, Xavier, Lariah, Nariah, Nathan, Gia, Shah, Khan, and Laylah; sisters-in-law, Tiny Carrington and Virginia Carrington; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

HATTIE MAE IS IN HER ETERNAL HOME
BUT WILL ALWAYS BE IN OUR HEARTS.
