Acknowledgement

Giving thanks always for all things to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Ephesians 5:20

We know our pain will decrease and what will remain will always be.
Love all whom you hold dear. Precious is the time you share.
Do not wait for tomorrow, for tomorrow may not be...
Thank you for keeping us in your thoughts and prayers.

A MILLION TIMES

A million times I've thought of you,
 A million times I've cried.
 If love alone could have saved you,
 You never would have dies.
 But if the world was mine to give,
 I'd give all that and more;
 To see you coming up the steps
 Or walking through the door.
 To hear you laugh or see you grin,
 To hold you in my arms again,
 To be with you the same sweet way
 Would be to me my brightest day.
 But a lovely heart stopped beating,
 Two smiling eyes closed to rest.
 God broke my heart to prove to me
 He only takes the best.

Memories...

Mary's Life Story

Mary Annetta Tribble Day, a loving mother and grandmother, gained her wings on January 11, 2020 at Laurens Hospice House in Clinton, South Carolina.

Mary was born June 20, 1969 to Johnnie C. and Mae W. Bluford Tribble. She was reared in Mountville, South Carolina then moved to Clinton, South Carolina and married David Day. After his death in 2018, she relocated to Laurens, South Carolina. She loved her family and friends, especially the grandchildren and the church, New Hope AME, where she was the Sunday School Superintendent and the WPS local president.

The queen is now in Heaven with her earthly king, David Day.

Those left to mourn Mary's passing and cherish her memories are her caring mother, Mae Bluford Tribble; three loving sons, Malcolm Dowdy, Mario Dowdy, and David J. Day; one loving daughter, Maisha (Roderick) Blackman; thirteen beautiful grandchildren, five of the home, Mykkeiziya Watts, Keith Watts, Anterio Blackman, Anviceo Blackman, Za'Maejor Blackman, Kamorio Dowdy, Daylen Dowdy, Davion Day, Trinity Mims, Shavar Blackwell, David J. Day, Jr., Harlem Day, and Legend Day; six god children, Marika Boyd, Renard Foster, Zalika Anderson, Malik Anderson, Tracy Price McCary, and Jermaine Bluford; two sisters, Cindi (Elick) Anderson and Kathy (Tommy) Pulley; three brothers, Billie Tribble, Deronnie Jennings, and Alexander Bluford; two aunts, Nancy (Arthur) Davis and Donna (Willie) Davis; three uncles, William Bluford, Willie Tribble, and Andrew Priestly; one god sister, Nellie Pulley; two brothers-in-law, Bernard Foster and Antrone Day; two devoted friends, Andrea (Lemont) Speaks and Melissa Irby; a long-time friend, Gwen Moses and a host of extended relatives and friends.

This is not good-bye but take your rest.
We will see you after while.
