Obituary

Sandra D. Friday, beloved daughter of Barbara A. Friday and the late Elise Choi ce, Jr., was born on November 24, 1962, in Buffalo, New York.

She attended Christ Church Unity in Augusta, Georgia.

She graduated from Clinton High School in 1980, and in 1984, she received her Bachelor's degree from Benedict College in Columbia, South Carolina.

Her first job was working at Amoco Polymers and after moving to Atlanta, she enjoyed working at the Center for Disease Control solving problems.

She enjoyed all sports and her favorite teams were the Pittsburgh Steelers and the South Carolina Lady Gamecocks Women's Basketball Team. She also loved spending time with family and grandchildren, cooking out and listening to rap music.

To cherish her memories of love, sacrifice, joyfulness and compassion of giving happens to be: her mother, Barbara A. Friday; her partner of twenty-eight years, Katrina D. Harper; brother, Thomas Friday; sister, Sahara Friday; four children; four grandchildren; aunt, Dorothy Simpson; uncle, Joe Mack Adams; great-aunt, Winnie M. Blount; and a host of other relatives, co-workers and friends.

Her Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of her as gone away,

Her journey's just begun.

Life holds so many facets,

This earth is only one.

Just think of her as resting,

From the sorrows and the tears,

In a place of warmth and comfort

Where there are no days or years.

Think how she must be wishing

That we could know today,

How nothing but our sadness,

Can really pass away.

And think of her as living,

In the hearts of those she touched,

For nothing loved is ever lost,

And she was loved so much.

Thank you God for allowing us to enjoy and share the love, free spirit, giving and wisdom of our loved one. She was a loving, dependable daughter, devoted to her grandmother, and loyal and committed to her partner of twenty-eight years. Her kind, gentle and unselfish spirit seemed to invite others to unload their burdens while she never complained of her own circumstances. Although we will miss her dearly, we find comfort in knowing she is resting safely in our Savior's arms.
