

A Letter From Heaven

*When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes filled with tears for me-
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you love me as much as I love you.
And each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me, too.
When tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.*

YOU

Her Smile

Though her smile is gone forever and her hand I cannot touch
I still have so many memories of the one I loved so much.
Her memory is now my keepsake, which with I'll never part.
God has her in her keeping I have her in my heart.
Sadly missed, but never forgotten.

Life Profile

Ms. MARY GENETT SIMPSON of Orangeburg, South Carolina was born December 3, 1962 to Gladys H. Simpson and the late Otis Simpson, Sr.

She attended the public schools of Laurens County, South Carolina and graduated from Clinton High School in 1981. In 1985, she received her Bachelor's in Special Education from South Carolina State University in Orangeburg, South Carolina. She earned her Masters in Rehab Counseling in 1986. In 1983, she was inducted into Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

Mary spent the majority of her career as a Counselor and Intake Coordinator. She served as a Clinical Counselor for Alcohol and Drug Abuse at The Dawn Center in Orangeburg, South Carolina. In 2012, she retired from the South Carolina Department of Corrections as a mental health director.

Mary was family-oriented, and she loved to travel and have gatherings with those she loved.

In addition to her father, she was preceded in death by two brothers James Otis Simpson and Otis Lee Simpson; and her dog, Jay.

On Monday, April 6, 2020, Ms. Mary G. Simpson transitioned to her Eternal Home with her Heavenly Father at the Medical University of South Carolina located in Charleston, South Carolina.

In addition to her mother, she leaves behind to cherish her memories two brothers, James E. Simpson and Jessie W. (Brenda) Simpson; one sister, Mary Elizabeth Millie; two aunts, Mildred Lindsey and Dr. Anne Mae Jones; one uncle Willie (Imogene) Henderson, three godchildren, Lauren and Venus Rowe, and Josiah Smith; two sisters-in-law, Sammie Mae Simpson, and Ruth Pressley; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends that will truly miss her.

“There is a time for everything,
and a season for every activity under the heavens:
a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot,
a time to kill and a time
to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build,
a time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance…”

– Ecclesiastes 3:1-4
