Farewell Dear Mother

Somewhere in my heart beneath all my grief and pain,
Is a smile I still wear at the sound of your dear name.
The precious word is 'MOTHER', she was my world you see,
But now my heart is breaking cause she's no longer here with me.
God chose her for His angel to watch me from above,
To guide me and advise me and know that I'm still loved.
The day she had to leave me when her life on earth was through,
God had better plans for her, for this, I surely knew.
When I think of her kind heart and all those loving years,
My memories surround me and I can't hold back the tears.
She truly was my best friend, someone I could confide in,
She always had a tender touch and a warm and gentle grin.
I want to thank you, Mother, for teaching me so well,
And though the time has come that I must bid you this farewell.

Legacy of Love

A sister, a mother, a grandma, too.
This is the legacy we have from you.
You taught us love and how to fight.
You gave us strength.
You gave us might.
A stronger person
Would be hard to find.
And in your heart,
You were always kind.
You fought for us all
In one way or another.
Not just as a sister,
Not just as a grandmother and mother.
For all of us
You gave your best.
Now, the time has come
For you to rest.
So, go in peace;
You've earned your sleep.
Your love in our hearts, we will eternally keep.

Obituary

The sun rose for Mrs. Cora Lee Bluford Grant on November 25, 1919 in Cross Hill, South Carolina to the late Archie Bluford and Alberta Bluford.

She was educated in the Laurens County schools. After many years of service, she retired from Whitten Center in Clinton, South Carolina. She was an active member of St. Vaughnville Baptist Church in Chappells, South Carolina until her health declined.

Mrs. Grant celebrated her 100th birthday on November 25, 2019.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband Benjamin Grant, Sr., one son, William Calvin Grant, two daughters, Hattie Lee Johnson and Almiree Grant; four brothers; and two sisters.

On Wednesday, April 29, at National Healthcare of Clinton, South Carolina, Mrs. Cora Lee Grant departed this life to meet with Jesus.

Left to cherish and savor her sweet memories are her son, Benjamin (Lisa Cunningham) Grant, Jr., one daughter, Lois (Lonnie) Carter, ten grandchildren; thirty-two great grandchildren; one great-great grand-child; one special niece, Bernadine McMorris; special friends of the family, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Davenport; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.
