

The Twenty-Third Psalms

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still water.

He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death. I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Acknowledgments

The family wishes to extend their gratitude to all those who supported them during this time. We extend special thanks to everyone that cared for Catfish and brought smiles, love and laughter to his life. Thank you, to those of you who have visited, called, sent cards, food, prayers, and other expressions of sympathy. We are thankful, and because of Jesus who provides life, we are blessed.

Gone Fishing

I've finished life's chores assigned to me, So put me on a boat headed out to sea.

Please send along my fishing pole. For I've been invited to the fishin' hole.

Where every day is a day to fish, To fill your heart with every wish.

Don't worry, or feel sad for me. I'm fishin' with the Master of the sea.

We will miss each other for awhile. But you will come and bring your smile.

That won't be long you will see, Till we're together you and me.

To all of those that think of me, Be happy as I go out to sea

If others wonder why I'm missin'

JUST TELL'EM I'M GONE FISHIN'.
