Rest In Heaven

Isaiah 41:10

So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

COMMITTAL SERVICE:

PRAYER, COMMITTAL, AND BENEDICTION

If you see my mom in heaven,
she won't be hard to find.
She's God's masterpiece of Motherhood.
She's unique and one of a kind.

She'll be the one with the prettiest Smile.
Her angel wings she wears with pride.
And as she reaches out to greet you,
You'll see the twinkle in her eyes.

She'll be digging in God's flower beds,
Gathering flowers as she goes.
She'll pick a single flower bouquet:
The beauty of God's red rose.

She'll be playing with the smallest angels,
Singing joyful games upon her knee,
Or maybe writing words of wisdom,
Or reciting a poem or three.

She's with her mom and dad now,
Embracing them lovingly or
Visiting with her long-lost friends,
Chatting so happily.

She'll be God's strongest angel.
No more burdens will she bear.
She'll stroll about with strength and grace,
Kneeling with God in prayer.

So if you see my mom in heaven,
Will you take care of her for me?
Place a kiss upon her cheek,
And hug her just for me.

You see, she was my special mom,
The truest friend she was to me.
She taught me all about our
God And the love he had for me.

She's my royal queen of mothers.
She'll wear her very own crown.
She'll sit and share God's golden
Throne in God's beautiful
Heavenly home.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mildred Mason Watts was born February 19, 1926 in Hamlet, North Carolina to the late Herbert Eugene Mason and Emma Griffin Mason.

She attended the public schools of Pennsylvania County in Philadelphia. After many years of employment, she retired in 1982 from Whitten Center in Clinton, South Carolina.

“Mama,” as she was called by many, was a gentle spirited woman who loved to cook and always made sure everyone was taken care of.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by one daughter, Jannie Mae Watts McGowan; two sons: John Erskine Watts, Jr. and James Edward Watts; four sisters: Hazel Mason, Marie Mason Barker, Ethel Mason Ford, and Geraldine Mason Riley; five brothers: Griffin Eugene Mason, Herbert Mason, Herbert William Mason, Luther Mason, and Arthur Mason.

Mrs. Mildred Mason Watts, age ninety-four, earned her wings on Monday, June 29, 2020 at her home in Clinton, South Carolina surrounded by her loved ones.

She leaves to cherish her fond memories three daughters: Maxine W. Smith, Emma W. Hunter, and Mattie M. Watts; fifteen grandchildren; thirty-five great grandchildren; great-great grandchildren; one sister-in-law, Cathy Watts; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
