LIFE PROFILE OF MR. CARLTON JOHNSON

Sunrise...

Mr. Carlton Johnson was born on February 17, 1962 in the Laurens County, South Carolina to the late Emerson Johnson and Addie Fincher Johnson.

A Life Well Spent...

Mr. Johnson was educated in the public schools of Laurens County, South Carolina. He attended Martha Dendy Elementary School and Bell Street Middle School in Clinton, South Carolina and was a 1980 graduate of Job Corps. Carlton was a member of Mt. Pleasant AME Church in Clinton, South Carolina as well as a loving brother, uncle, and friend.

Carlton, affectionately called "Boody Boy" by friends and family, started his career as a textile worker as a young teenager and worked in the Delta Woodside Mills Beattie Plant in Fountain Inn, South Carolina for many years. He became disabled in his mid-life and spent his remaining years helping others and working part-time as a handyman. In addition to his love of repairing cars, he enjoyed fishing, grilling, and cooking out with family and friends. His joy in life was making others laugh and spending time with family.

Remember Me

To the living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful, I will never return,
To the angry, I was cheated,
But to the happy, I am at peace,
And to the faithful, I have never left.
I cannot speak, but I can listen.
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.
So, as you stand upon a shore
gazing at a beautiful sea,
As you look upon a flower
and admire its simplicity,
Remember me.

Remember me in your heart:
Your thoughts, and your memories,
Of the times we loved,
The times we cried,
The times we fought,
The times we laughed.
For if you always think of me,
I will never have gone.

“Boody Boy”

Mr. Carlton Johnson

Memories Are Golden
They say memories are golden-
Well maybe this is true.
I never wanted memories;
I only wanted you.
A million times I needed you;
A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life I loved you dearly;
In death I love you still.
Inside my heart you hold a place
No one could ever fill.
If tears could build a stairway
And heartache make a lane,
I'd walk the path to Heaven
And bring you back again.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.
