

TWENTY-THIRD

PSALM

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters; He restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil; for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You have anointed my head with oil; My cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord Forever.

God, grant me the SERENITY
to accept the things I can not change,
COURAGE
to change the things I can, and WISDOM
to know the difference.
Living one day at a time,
Enjoying one moment at a time,
Accepting hardship as the pathway to peace.
Taking, as He did, this sinful world as it is,
Not as I would have it.
Trusting that He will make all things right if I surrender to His will.
That I may be reasonably happy in this life,
And supremely happy with Him forever in the next.
Amen.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Gratitude is flowing from our hearts. You have been the hands of God in acts of kindness, the heart of God sharing compassion, the feet of God in visitation, and the love of God in your prayers and support. We are grateful for each of you.

REMEMBERING MS. MARTHA MOBLEY

On December 7, 2020, Ms. Martha Mobley completed her earthly journey at her home in Washington, DC. She was called home to be with our Lord at the age of seventy-six.

Martha Mobley was born on January 29, 1944, to Eliza Lee Mobley Henderson. She was a 1962 graduate of Bell Street High School in Clinton, South Carolina. After making Washington, DC her home, Martha made her career at the United States Department of Treasury until her retirement. She is preceded in death by her parents and sisters: Helen Mobley, Annie Laura Lee, Hattie Lee Mobley and Sylvia H. Smith.

Martha was one of a kind and her memory will always be carried in the hearts of her four brothers: Rufus L. Mobley of Greenwood, SC, Thomas Mobley of Philadelphia, PA, Johnnie L. Mobley and Anthony Henderson both of Clinton, SC; three sisters: Paris (Jimmy) Rayford, Deborah Henderson and Barbara Rice all of Clinton, South Carolina; an aunt, Sarah H. Byrd of Greenville, South Carolina and her companion, Warren Singleton of Washington, DC. She was also loved dearly by a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

*“Those we love can never be more than a thought away...for as long as there’s a memory,
they live in our hearts to stay.”*

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the LORD, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day-and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for His appearing. II Timothy 4:7-8
