Until We Meet Again, Sister

A light from our life has gone
A voice we loved is still
A place is vacant within our heart
Which never can be filled.

A bouquet of beautiful memories
Sprayed with a million tears
We wish that God could have spared you
If just for a few more years.

We hold you close within our heart,
And there you will remain
To walk with us throughout our life
Until we meet again.

So rest in peace dear loved one
And thanks for all you've done
We pray that God has given you
The crown you've truly won.

Your vacant place
no one can fill
we miss you now and always will.

Obituary

To every follower of the Lord there comes a time when they'll hear God say, "Welcome Home!" The sound of those two words at journey's end is something every traveler longs to hear. It means you're in a place where you are fully embraced, appreciated and loved. On March 5, 2021, God dispatched his angels to escort Ms. Barry Jean Cromer to her new home in Glory. She departed this life from National Health Care in Clinton, SC.

Barry was assigned to Earth on December 23, 1955. She had a sweet and simple demeanor that won the hearts and love of many. She was a lifelong resident of Clinton, SC and formerly resided on Gary Street. She attended Bell Street High School and was a member of Hebron Baptist Church in Clinton, SC.

In addition to Jesus and a host of Angels, Barry was greeted in Glory by her parents, James and Lonnie Taylor Cromer; her sister, Mary Ruth Cromer; brothers, PJ Cromer and James Roland Cromer, Jr.; nephew, Stanley Hunter along with devoted cousins: Wince Simpson and Flossie and Eddie Choice.

The love and memories of Ms. Barry Jean Cromer will radiate forever in the heart of her sisters, LeRuth T. Hunter of Clinton, SC and Nellie M. Pixley of Saluda, SC; five nieces: Harriett H. Grant, Jacqueline Miller, Angela Miller, Jean Broadwater and Belinda Simpkins; two nephews, Joe Lewis and Tony Pixley; great nephews, Jarvis Clark, MyKing Price, Joylin Miller and Kevious Hunter. Barry also leaves treasured moments and memories to her devoted cousin, Dorothy Simpson and other loving relatives and friends.
