

Footprints

One night, I had a dream.
I dreamt I was walking along the beach with the Lord,
And across the sky flashed scenes from my life.
For each scene, I noticed two sets of footprints;
One belonged to me and the other to the Lord.
When the last scene of my life flashed before me,
I looked back at the footprints in the sand.
I noticed that at many times along the path of my life,
There was only one set of footprints.
I also noticed that it happened at the very lowest
And saddest times in my life.
This bothered me, and I questioned the Lord about it.
“Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you,
You would walk with me all the way,
But I noticed during the most troublesome times in my life,
There is only one set of footprints.
I don’t understand why,
in times when I needed you most,
You should leave me.”
The Lord replied, “My precious, precious child,
I love you, and I would never, ever leave you
During your times of trial and suffering.
When you saw only one set of footprints,
It was then that I carried you.”

Obituary

Ms. Jennie Lynn Smith was born May 8, 1942, to the late Artemus and Lula Smith in Laurens, South Carolina. She was educated in the Laurens county schools and was raised in the Mt. Moriah Baptist Church Family.

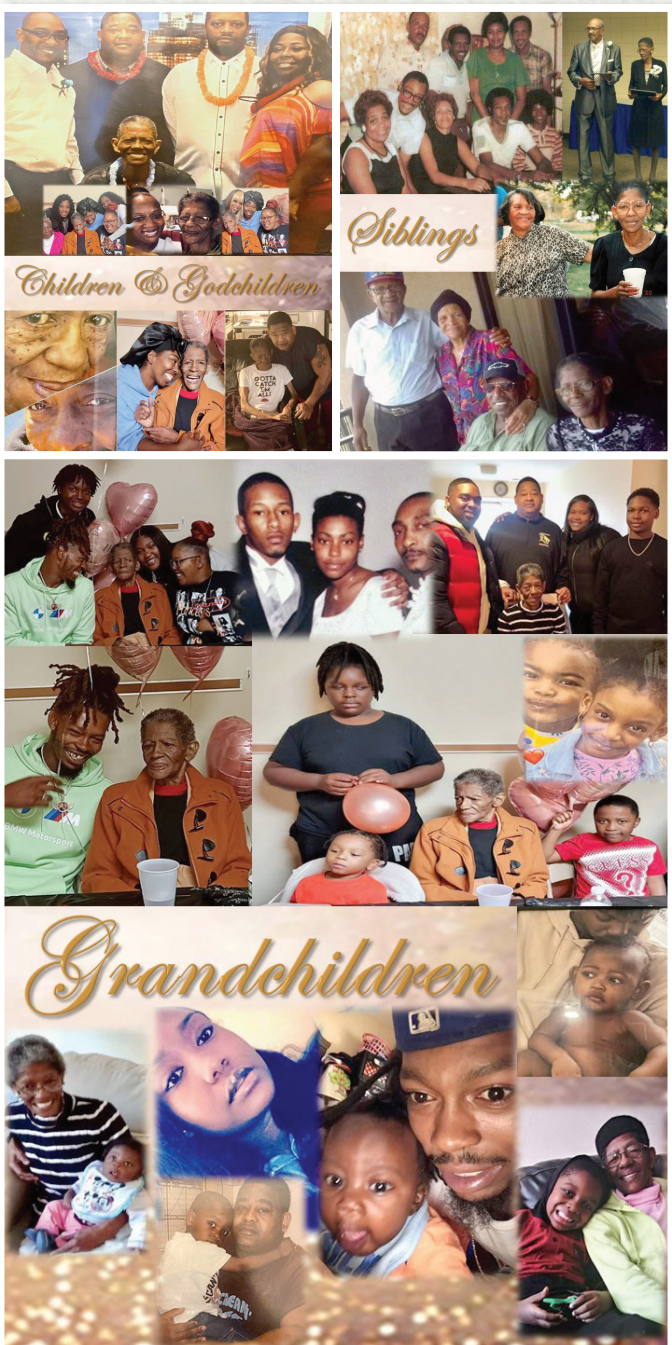

As a young adult, Ms. Smith relocated to New Jersey with her three children. She was employed at the Greenbrier Nursing Facility, where she was dedicated to each and every person she cared for as a nurses' aide.

That compassion for others continued throughout her career for over 20 years. She then carried it with her back to her hometown of Laurens, South Carolina; she later moved her membership to join the Poplar Spring AME Church family

After eighty years of service on June 2, 2022, Ms. Jennie Lynn Smith answered the call of the Lord. In addition to her parents; she was met at the Heavenly Gates by her grandchildren, Tamar and Victoria Smith, and siblings, Tom, Thelma, Langester, Louise, Hannah, Claude, JD, and her twin Gerald.

Those that will cherish her love and memories are: her children, Terry, Kenneth, Artemus Smith, and Kim (Allen) Pointer; brother, Willie Smith; eleven grandchildren; seventeen great-great-grandchildren; three godchildren, Kerry & Peggy Vivett and Coti Hamilton; a special couple she adopted Tim & Rosa Booker; and many other loving nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
