

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Your kindness, concern and thoughtfulness are Christian virtues and a reminder of the provisions of our God. Your encouragement has brought great comfort to each of us as we celebrate the life of one whom we loved so dearly. God gives us comfort in the form of good friends. We are forever grateful. May His peace be with you, for His love never ends.

RELEASE ME

Release me, let me go.

I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you my love and you can only guess,
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I travel on alone.

So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must Then let you grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for awhile that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on,
So, if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near,
And if you listen with your heart,
You'll hear all my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home".

The Broken Chain

In Memory of My Amazing Uncle, Junior Glenn

We little knew that morning that God would call your name in life we loved you dearly in death we do the same

It broke our hearts to lose you you did not go alone, for part of us went with you the day God called you home

You left us peaceful memories your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you you are always at our side

Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same but as God calls us one by one the chain will link again.

Husband In Heaven

Although you sleep in Heaven now
You're not that far away
My heart is full of memories
And you're with me everyday
You lived your life with meaning
And with a smile upon your face
A world that was full of happiness
Is now an empty place
People say that only time
Will heal a broken heart
But just like me and you
It has been torn apart
I know you are at peace now
And in a place where you are free
Meet me at the Pearly Gates
When Heaven calls for me

Remembering Mr. Junior Pull Glenn

Mr. Junior Glenn was born on June 2, 1943 to Mr. Lawrence and Mrs. Onnie Glenn who were generous and loving parents. He spent his childhood in Clinton, SC where he attended the public schools of Laure-County. As an adult, Junior was employed by SC Department of Special Needs and Disability as a bus driver at Whitten Center until his health declined. He was a loving and devoted husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather, brother and uncle. He loved his family and the Clemson Tigers deeply and unconditionally. His life was a reflection of a selfless man with a kind spirit and a wonderful sense of humor. We were blessed to learn many valuable life lessons from Junior during his seventy-nine years.

God welcomed Mr. Junior Glenn into his Heavenly home on July 4, 2022. He was predeceased by his parents, Lawrence and Onnie Glenn; his brothers, Jerry Lewis and Phillip Glenn and his half sister, Angela Carter Jackson

The legacy of Mr. Glenn will be cherished by his devoted wife of fifty-four years, Mrs. Clara Bell Glenn of the home, his children: Bernard (Candice) Glenn, John (Julia) Glenn and Maureen and Brenda Glenn; ten grandchildren: great grandchildren; eight siblings: Thomas L. Glenn, Lillie (Eddie) Purtuas, Brenda Carter, Wendell Glenn, Sally Boyd, Mattie (Douglas) Gillard, Joe (Lerosa) Mitchell and Ricky (Nani) Glenn; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members and friends. The love and memories of Mr. Junior Glenn will remain in our hearts and spirits forever... gently urging us to pursue God's purpose for our lives.
