

The Serenity Prayer

God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change; Courage to change the things I can; And wisdom to know the difference. Living one day at a time; Enjoying one moment at a time; Accepting hardships as the pathway to peace; Taking, as He did, this sinful world as it is not as I would have it; Trusting that He will make all things right if I surrender to His will; So that I may be reasonably happy in this life and supremely happy with Him forever and ever in the next. Amen

Memories

HEY DAD

I wish I had been there before you left. I wish I had spent more time with you and the rest of the family. I wish you had made it to my graduation. But as I see it now, you're still going to be there to see all of it. I know that you will always be there looking after me. Zy'Erica, your brothers, sisters, nieces, nephews, cousins, and everyone else who was there for you and you were there for. What I'm basically trying to say is, this is not goodbye or farewell. I'll see you again sooner or later. I will live my life to the fullest and make you proud. You will always be a part of me as I am a part of you. I miss you as much today as I did the day you left. As you look down on me, I look back up to you for you will always be remembered in my heart.

Remembering Mr. Leo Davis

He spent his childhood in Clinton, SC and the surrounding areas and attended the public schools of Laurens County District 56. God welcomed Mr. Leo Lamar Davis into his Heavenly home on October 1, 2022 at Millennium Post Acute Rehabilitation Center in West Columbia, SC. He was greeted in Heaven by his Lord and Savior. Leo's parents, Arthur and Jeanette Davis; his brother, John Earl Davis; a niece, Madison Jeter; and a nephew, Billy D. Davis were waiting for him at the pearly gates.

The legacy of Mr. Davis will be cherished and shared by his children: Zy'Erica Workman of Fort Lauderdale, FL; and ZaQuawn Za'Mario Newman of Mauldin, SC; five sisters: Linda (Kelly) Workman, Sara (Robert) McDonald and Wendy (Melvin) Jones of Laurens, SC; Janice Davis of Clinton, SC and Brenda Smith of Jacksonville, FL; five brothers: Booker T.
