In Memory of a Loved One

To lose someone I loved so much brings pain beyond belief
there are no words to ease my pain
my sadness and my grief
I feel I've lost someone so close so wonderful and dear
I think about your special ways and wish that you were near But although you have left this world you'll stay within my heart guiding like an angel
even though we are apart
For love is everlasting and so are my memories-your legacy that's always there to light the way for me

AN ANSWER

Life has its questions, as proven today. When my spirit sensed darkness coming my way The storms that were hidden, returned oh so fast. Just when I thought they were lost in the past.

Again I felt teardrops fall from my eyes. Like rivers of pain that grew deeper in size. My heart began breaking like it did the first time I faced this storm weeping, asking “why is God blind?”

I relived the suffering that I felt for so long. A suffering that came from a life too soon gone. Again I cried “God where are you now? I can’t even stand up...I don’t think I know how”.

Then as quickly as the storm entered my heart, a sweet, simple peace recited its part. And if I heard God in a gentle, kind voice say to me, “Child, their life was my choice:.

“I know of your suffering, and your child is fine. And you’ll see him soon, for you too are mine. Above all things, I know what to do. Remember my child, I lost my child too.”

“But just as my son rose to my throne, know that I’ll never leave you alone. So when these storms rage, call on my name; and I’ll speak his answer to you...unchanged.”

OBITUARY

Today, we gather to celebrate the life of Mr. Christopher Geterio Turner, to share treasured memories and to say thank you for all he has been to us. Christopher was welcomed into the Turner family on December 2, 1991 by his parents, Mr. Kenneth and Mrs. Dora Turner. Chris or Big Chris, as he was known by family and friends, grew into a loving, caring and ambitious young man with a smile that would light up any room.

There was never a dull moment in Christopher's presence. He never met a stranger and had a great sense of humor. He enjoyed being a welder and mastering the trade. He had an entrepreneurial spirit and business ideas to share and pursue. His sense of adventure never let him pass up an opportunity to travel. Chris loved his family and friends, but the birth of his son and daughter was his greatest blessing. He grew into a responsible, dedicated and supportive father and fiancée. His mother also held a special place in his heart: the depth of his love for her was boundless.

On December 18, 2022, Christopher G. Turner answered a call from his Heavenly Father and crossed over to paradise. He was predeceased by his grandparents: James and Lela Simpson and Arthur Lee and Cinderella Turner.

Christopher was an extraordinary father, son, brother, nephew and friend. He left indelible memories and a legacy of love to his: children, Geterious and Genesis; parents, Kenneth and Dora Turner; fiancée, Kawanda Wilson; siblings: Branderius Simpson, Octavious Conway, Travet Simpson and Candis Simpson; special aunts, Rachel (Curtis) Pitts and Andrena (Greg) Tucker and special uncle, Victor (Donna) Turner; great-great aunt, Maggie Mason; nieces: Tatyana Jones and Aviyana Simpson; nephews: Kayden Conway, Tymir and Tymirion Jones and many other loving relatives and friends.
