

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Your love and kindness have comforted us during this time of bereavement. We appreciate each and every one of you who have made this experience easier to bear. Praising God always for the life of our dear Robert Sinkler, Jr. The Family

Dear Dad,

I love you so much. This is a hard pill to swallow. Never did I think you would leave me so soon. But God called your name, and you took his hand. I'm left to remember and cherish all the talks and laughs we had for eternity. All you ever talked about was me your twin. I'm so grateful you were able to experience one of my greatest accomplishments...me graduating from Livingstone College in Salisbury, NC with a B.S. in Biology. I know you weren't perfect but you were still my Dad, and that's all that matters to me. I will miss you each day. I love you Daddy.

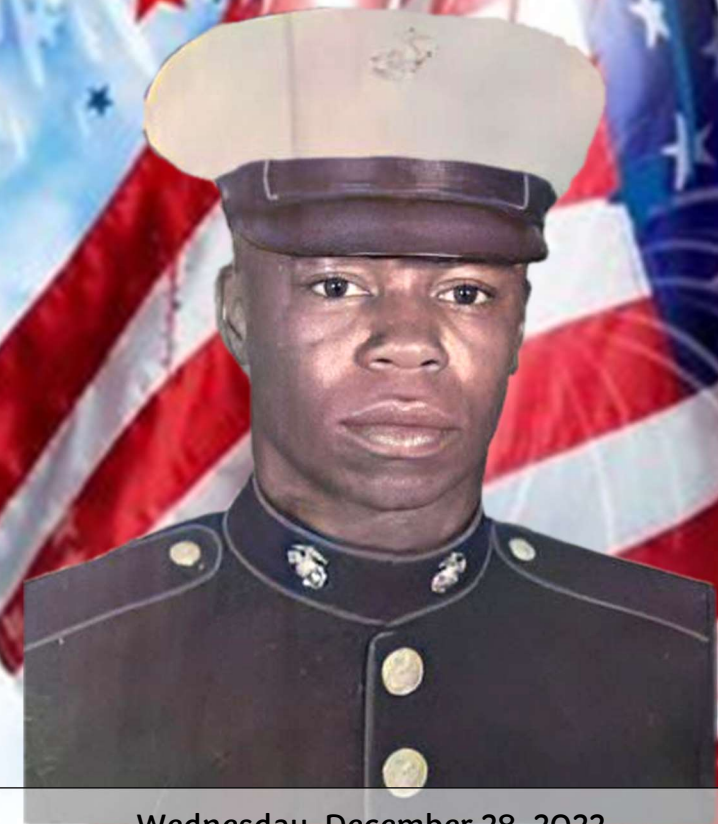

Your Daughter,

Briana

A LIFE WELL LIVED

On December 27, 1963, Robert and Christine Sinkler, Sr. welcomed a healthy and handsome baby boy into their family. They proudly named him Robert Ken Sinkler, Jr. Robert Jr. grew into a quiet and humble young man who loved the Lord and accepted Him as his personal Savior. The family called Brooklyn, New York home.

Robert attended public school in Kingston County New York. After he and his family relocated to South Carolina, Robert graduated from Columbia High School...Class of 1981. Later he enlisted in the United States Marine Corp where he served honorably from 1983 to 1987. Upon returning to South Carolina Robert made Evidence of Faith Worldwide Ministries his church home. He enjoyed serving the Lord and was an active, dedicated supporter and servant in the house of the Lord until his health declined. Although he could no longer physically work in the vineyard his mind and faith never failed.

Robert K. Sinkler, Jr. was preceded in death by his parents. God dispatched His angels for him on December 20, 2022. They came for him on a cloud. The Maker loaned Robert Jr. to us for fifty-eight years. Although his death interrupted the connection we shared, we take comfort in knowing he is in the Savior's care.

The legacy of Mr. Robert K. Sinkler, Jr. reminds us how to be kind, caring, and compassionate to everyone. Those left to carry on his legacy include his: wife, Denise Mickens Sinkler; daughter, Briana Nicole Mickens; brother, Apostle Winston (Juliette) Sinkler; sisters, Hazel McCray, Latrice Sinkler and Charlotte B. Sinkler; as well as many other loving relatives and friends. May his soul rest in peace and rise in glory.

AFTERGLOW

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one. I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done. I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun; Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

Robert Ken Sinkler, Jr.
