A love note to my sister Lucy. Growing up with you was blessing. I always had a sister that I could laugh with, enjoy talks with and most importantly love and protect. As a brother I will miss you dearly. I will miss your understanding, unconditional love and support. The smile you would greet me with and your kindness. I know the Lord had a greater plan in his palace for you and with that I know you had go but I will never forget all the years you were lent to me as my sister. Take your rest my dear sister until we meet again.

Love Always,

Robert & Bennie

Dear Aunt Lucy. You knew us before GOD introduced us to the world. Your unconditional love and support never stopped from the time we were born. You would always make sure we knew you loved us. Before leaving you would always say “y’all be good now and I love you. As our aunt you were always a beautiful gentle woman. Yea you would raise your voice from time to time but it was only to say “y’all don’t do that” or “Come back here” you were very protective of ALL of us and proud to be our aunt. Telling anyone that’s my niece. Aunt Lucy take your rest you not in pain no more we know GOD has you in his house and he’s protecting you as you did us. Everything you taught us about genuine unconditional love & kindness we cherish. We will miss your smiling face and gentle heart. O’yea your cooking was always top notch. You were the best scratch made biscuit maker in the world.

Until we see you again

Always your nieces,

Tracy , Hope Becky
