I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah, yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your hear and share with me
God wanted me now, He set me FREE!

Her Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of her as gone away —

Her journey has just begun

Life holds many facets

The Earth is only one

Just think of her as resting

From the sorrows and the tears

In a place of warmth and comfort

Where there are no days and years

Think how she must be wishing

That we could know today

How nothing but our sadness can really pass away

And think of her as living

In the hearts of those she touched

For nothing loved is ever lost—

And she was loved so much.

Reflections of Life

Ms. Sarah "Jean" Castleberry answered the Master's call and parted this life on earth on August 5, 2018 in Laurens County, South Carolina. She was born on July 6, 1935 in Laurens, County, South Carolina, one of two daughter, to the late Mr. Jimmy and Mrs. Alberta Worthy.

Jean received her educational foundation in Laurens County schools. She confessed hope in Christ at an early age and attended Zion Hill Baptist Church in Cross Hill, South Carolina and Hebron Baptist Church in Clinton, South Carolina.

Jean truly loved life, laughter, meeting people, her family and friends. She had a positive, quick wit and loved to dance and laugh. She loved to play Bid Wizz, Rummy and Solitaire as well as bowling, hosting events and caring for others. Jean enjoyed reading, gardening, sewing, decorating and organization. Family members believed she genuinely loved to clean!

Her sister, Evelyn Bostic preceded her in death in January of 2015. Predeceasing Jean in addition to her sister is her oldest daughter, Regina Barnes; her grandson, Wayne B. Adams; her ex-husband, T.Y. Castleberry, who remained a part of the family throughout his life; and her partner of many years, Robert Johnson of Chapin, South Carolina.

Those sharing love and precious memories of Ms. Jean Castleberry are: two daughters, Rhonda Castleberry and Charlene (Curtis) Nance of Clinton, South Carolina; a son-in-law, Leroy Barnes of West Columbia, South Carolina; two grandsons, Ronald (Jessica) Castleberry of Clinton, South Carolina and Travius (Shantel) Fisher, Sr. of Greer, South Carolina; two granddaughters, Towana "Jean" (Grady) Wren of West Columbia, South Carolina and Tyette (Vincent) Stokes of Clinton, South Carolina; eleven great grandchildren, Raylyn Castleberry of Clinton South Carolina, Jayda Elam of Greer South Carolina, Shai Imani Lindsay, Alphonso "AJ" Lindsay Jr., Taj Fisher, Kimaya Fisher Tranisha Fisher, Travius Fisher Jr., Tyler Wayne Brown, Sierra (Johnny) Brown and Dominic Reeves; four great-great grandchildren, Ziyah Fisher, Lundin Adams, Leila Adams and Layla Adams; one niece, Debra Faucett of Rahway New Jersey, one great niece, Aisha (Thomas) Petit of Rahway, New Jersey; great nephew, Geoffrey Bell of Clinton, South Carolina; two great-great nieces, Nola and Ziah Thomas-Petit; a special aunt, Katie Malone of Bronx, New York and an array of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and family.

We thank you O' God for the span of time you allowed Jean to share in our lives. Let nothing of her life be lost, for after all, life is not measured by its duration, but donation.
