CELEBRATION OF A BLESSED LIFE

Mrs. Lola Bell GARY

Sunrise February 25, 1916

Sunset August 25, 2018

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures: he leads me beside the still waters. He restores my soul: he leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of my enemies; thou anoints my head with oil: my cup runs over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever. Selah!

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun of happy memories that I leave when life is done.*

A Blessed Life

*None of us lives to himself,
and none of us dies to himself.
If we live, we live to the Lord and if we die, we die to the Lord so then, whether we live or whether we die
we are the Lord's.*

—Romans 14:7-8
