

Miss Me....But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room;
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared.
Miss me-but let me go.
For this journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me- but let me go.

It Is Well With My Soul

Don't spend too much time in mourning. Tears are for the sad; I left to be with Jesus and this should make you glad.

Mr. Tommy Lee Shelton of Clinton, South Carolina was born on October 23, 1959 to the late Mr. Claude Shelton and the late Mrs. Mattie Mae Ferguson Shelton.

Tommy received his formal education in Laurens District 56 schools where he attended Clinton High School in Clinton, South Carolina. He is a former employee of Hart Graphics in Simpsonville, South Carolina.

At a young age, Tommy received his spiritual foundation and developed his personal relationship with Jesus as a member of Hebron Baptist Church in Clinton, South Carolina.

Mr. Shelton's earthly journey ended on Monday, September 3, 2018 as he peacefully entered eternal rest at his home. He was reunited with his parents, Mr. & Mrs. Shelton, his brothers, James Gilbert Shelton, Ray Charles Shelton and Willie Earl Shelton and his niece, Gwen Chretien all of whom had preceded him in death.

Tommy left an enduring impression on the hearts of his loved ones: his estranged wife, Sheila Shelton of Greenville, South Carolina; two stepsons, Chad Cebula and Mike Cebula of Greenville, South Carolina; his two sisters, Reverend Claudia Ann Roberson and Cecia White of Clinton, South Carolina; and a special friend, Alice Renee Lynch of the home; his extended family members and friends who will cherish his memory.
