His Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of him as gone away his journey's just begun...

Life holds so many facets, this earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears, in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days or years.

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today,
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched, for nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.

With Sincere Gratitude and Appreciation

A friendly smile, a casual touch, these are the things that mean so much. God gives us comfort in the form of good friends and family. Thank you for your expressions of love and concern. The Family

Obituary

Today we celebrate the life of Mr. William Preston Boyd. He was the son of the late Mr. Marshall and Mrs. Mamie Bell Boyd, Jr. Born in Laurens County on February 14, 1925 and raised in Cross Hill, South Carolina, he learned early in life to love God, trust Him and serve Him. He was a life long member of Zion Hill Baptist Church.

Mr. Boyd fought a good fight; he finished his course, and he answered the call to lay down his earthly tabernacle and enter eternal rest on September 22, 2018. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his best friend and wife of seventy years, Emmaline Boyd.

Although he may no longer walk beside us, Mr. William Preston Boyd, lives within us and is a part of us. He lives on forever in the hearts and memories of his daughters, Ms. Chiquita L. Boyd, and Ms. Elaine Glenn of New York; thirteen grandchildren, one raised in the home, Mr. Byren M.A. Boyd; sisters, Mrs. Corrine Pressley (Johnnel) of Washington, DC and Ms. Cora Mae Williams of Columbia, South Carolina; a brother, Mr. Garfield Boyd of Cross Hill, South Carolina; one sister in spirit, Ma. Ann Lee Thorb of New Carrollton, Maryland; two goddaughters, Mrs. Willette Thorb-Matthews (Thomas) of Upper Marlboro, Maryland and Mrs. Doris Johnson (Todd) of Washington, DC; a godson, Mr. Spencer Johnson of Washington, DC; numerous nieces, nephews, extended family members and friends.

For if we live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord.

Therefore, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.

Romans 14:8
