

Still Missing You

They say there is a reason
They say that time will heal
But neither time nor reason
Will change the way we feel.

For no one knows the heartache that lies behind our smiles,
No one knows how many times we have broken down and cried.

We want to tell you something so there won't be any doubt, You're so wonderful to think of but so hard to be without.

We cannot bring the old days back, when we were all together
The family chain is broken now, but memories live forever.

With Sincere Gratitude

In the midst of our grief, the family of Demetraile Kingsborough Johnson, thank our many friends for your loving and generous expressions of remembrance during our time of bereavement. Your acts of comfort and prayer have sustained us and reminded us of God's mercy and grace. May the good Lord, Who has welcomed Demetraile home, bless each of you.

*Missing You
Grandma*

I've left this little card Grandma
Just so you will know,
I love you and I miss you
More than you could know.

You were so very caring
So loving and so kind,
And everywhere you went
There was a rainbow there to find.

You played a big part in my life
And even though you're gone,
The respect and love
I have for you
Will just go on and on.

Celebrating Her Spirit

We gather here today to celebrate Demetraile Chernise Kingsborough Johnson. Together we acknowledge and share both our joy in the gift that her life was to us and the pain that her passing brings. Demetraile was sent from heaven on August 28, 1972 to Mr. Frank and Mrs. Georgia Mae Kingborough, Jr. in Clinton, South Carolina. Demetraile learned to love the Lord at an early age and continued to grow in Christ as a member of Greater Faith Apostolic Church in Clinton, South Carolina.

In her early childhood years Demetraile attended Laurens County District 56 schools and was a 1990 graduate of Clinton High School. She was later employed by the Bailey Richloom Plant in Clinton, South Carolina. Her most rewarding role was that of wife, mother and grandmother. She really enjoyed spending time with her family and friends.

Demetraile was predeceased by her maternal grandmother, Sweet Lou Deloatch; her paternal grandmother, Doris Kingsborough; her maternal grandfather, George Penson; her mother-in-law, Dorothy Sanders-Johnson; her father-in-law, James Henry Johnson, Sr.; and an aunt Doris Ann Kingsborough. Demetraile Kingsborough Johnson received a call on November 14, 2018 to return to heaven.

Our hearts are heavy with many emotions...sorrow in missing her; joy in knowing her suffering has ended; gratitude for the time we were blessed to have her in our lives and hope in knowing we will one day see her again. Until then, she will be mourned and remembered by: her beloved husband of thirteen years, Timothy "Timmy" Johnson of Clinton, South Carolina; her children, Hezekiah Simpson, Yasmine Simpson, Destiny Simpson and Avion Miller all of Clinton, South Carolina; two grand-children, Avionana and Iviona Redd; her paternal grandfather, Frank Kingsborough, Sr.; her sister, Rosetta Deloatch-Braswell (Michael) of Chicago, Illinois; three aunts, Mimmie Mae Kingsborough, Katie Mae Kingsborough and Laura Brown; three uncles, Willie Earl, Andrew and Ralph Kingsborough; a nephew, Michael Braswell; nieces, Marissa Braswell, Chrishuna Brown, Jeraiah Smith and Teresa Brown; two sister-in-law, two brothers-in-law, five great nieces and nephews; along with a host of cousins, family and friends. In sharing the joy and the pain together today, may we lesson the pain and remember more dearly the joy.
