Still Missing You

They say there is a reason
 They say that time will heal
 But neither time nor reason
 Will change the way we feel.

For no one knows the heartache that lies behind our smiles.
 No one knows how many times
 we have broken down and cried.
 We want to tell you something so there won't be any doubt.
 You're so wonderful to think of,
 but so hard to be without..

We cannot bring the old days back
 when we were all together.
 The family chain is broken now,
 but memories live forever.

God's Eternal Plan

God gives us each the gift of life to cherish from our birth.
 He gives us friends and those we love to share our days on Earth.
 He watches us with loving care and takes us by the hand.
 He blesses us with countless joys and guides the lives we've planned.
 Then when our work on earth is done He calls us to His side
 To live with Him in happiness where peace and love abide.

The Serenity Prayer

God grant me the serenity
 To accept the things I cannot change;
 Courage to change the things I can;
 And wisdom to know the difference.

Living one day at a time;
 Enjoying one moment at a time;
 Accepting hardships as the pathway to peace;
 Taking, as He did, this sinful world
 As it is, not as I would have it;
 Trusting that He will make all things right
 If I surrender to His Will;
 So that I may be reasonably happy in this life
 And supremely happy with Him
 Forever and ever in the next.
 Amen.

Sheila's Story

Sheila Elaine Toland Willford "Juicy" was born on June 7, 1969 in Clinton, South Carolina to Mr. Joe L. and Mrs. Katie R. Toland. Sheila received her formal education in Laurens District 56 Schools where she was an avid athlete...playing basketball, volleyball and softball, as well as running track. She was a 1987 graduate of Clinton High School in Clinton, South Carolina. Sheila then attended Johnson C. Smith and Lander Universities. After college she found employment as a Unit Director for Bojangles where she worked tirelessly for nineteen years.

Sheila touched the hearts of everyone who was blessed to encounter her. She had a very unique way of making everyone feel special and loved. A loving and dedicated mother, Sheila selflessly cared for her son with love and compassion. She was a beautiful and fun loving person who genuinely enjoyed life and making people smile.

Sheila departed this life on December 30, 2018 when she heard someone gently calling her name. "Sheila, enter My gates with praise and rejoice as My angels sing." Now at peace forever, she is safely home in heaven. Sheila was preceded in death by two nephews, Warren D. Kindell and Phillip T. Hagood.

Sheila is survived by her son, Steven T. McDuffie; her parents, Mr. & Mrs. Joe L. Toland; a loving and devoted friend, Erika Brown of the home; a sister, Melissa A. Toland-Bailey (Tony); a brother, Clarence Patrick Toland (Arletha); two nephews, Kendall D. Toland and Devan T. Bailey; two nieces, Claryssa D. Toland and Mekayla T. Bailey; nine uncles: James Reeder (Bessie), Lewis Simpson, Alvin Smith, Ronald Langford (Rosa), Otis Langford (Linda), Gregory Langford (Doris), Robert Toland (Bernice), James Toland (Barbara), Heyward Toland (Deborah); seven aunts: Annie Mae Brown, Daisy Mae Smoot (Harold), Lula Ree Crawford, Janice Wilson (Larry), Deborah Langford, Carrie Smith and Bertha Booker; many cousins, extended family members and friends. Sheila will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.

Life is But a Stopping Place

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord
