

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We are most grateful for every expression of love and concern, for every prayer prayed and every kind deed. We have been comforted by your visits, cards, calls, food, prayers and other thoughtful gestures. Thank you for being here for us as we accept God's will, knowing our beloved Ernestine is absent from the body and present with the Lord.

LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.

Where life begins
& love never ends.

Waiting at Heaven's Door

Death beckoned her with outstretched hand
And whispered softly of an unknown land,
But she was not afraid to go
For though the path she did not know
She took death's hand without a fear
For God who safely brought her here
Had promised He would lead the way
Into eternity's bright day.

For none of us need go alone
Into the valley that is unknown,
But, guided by our Father's hand
We journey to the promised land.

She was your special loving Mother
You shared your lives with one another,
And you'll find comfort for your grief
In knowing her death brought sweet relief.
For, now she is free from all suffering and pain
And your great loss became her gain...

You know that her love is with you still
For she loved you in life and always will.
Love like hers can never end
Because it is the perfect blend
Of joy and sorrows, smiles and tears,
That just grew stronger with the years.
Love like hers can never die
For she's taken it with her to the sky...

So think of Mom as living above
No farther away than your undying love,
For now she is happy and free once more
And she's waiting for you at Heaven's door.

A Life Well Lived

"Those we love can never be more than a thought away... or as long as there's a memory, they live in our hearts to stay."

After a brief stay at Laurens County Memorial Hospital, Mrs. Ernestine Lindsay White- Dunbar entered into the everlasting arms and care of her Heavenly Father on Friday, March 1, 2019. She was born in Washington, DC on April 15, 1945 to Mr. Erskine Miller Lindsay, Sr. and Mrs. Mildred Henderson Lindsay.

After the family relocated to South Carolina, Ernestine received her educational foundation in the Laurens County District 56 schools. She is a graduate of Bell Street High School in Clinton, South Carolina and Allen University in Columbia, South Carolina. After college Ernestine moved to Georgia and embarked on a career in elementary education that spanned more than thirty years. After retiring she returned to her roots and her family in Clinton, South Carolina. She was a member of the Retired Teachers Association, VFW Post 5932, Laurens County Allen University Alumni Association and New Hope AME Church in Mountville, South Carolina. Mrs. White-Dunbar was a blessed and devoted parent and pillar of the community. She had an infectious smile, a remarkable sense of humor. She loved adventure, traveling, talking and being the life of any social gathering. Ernestine carried herself with elegance and grace and navigated life with purpose. Most importantly Mrs. White-Dunbar loved God and her family.

Mrs. Ernestine Lindsay White-Dunbar is survived by her loving son and stepson Dario M. White of Savannah, Georgia and Jermaine Dunbar of Atlanta, Georgia; her beloved mother, Mrs. Mildred H. Lindsay of Clinton, South Carolina; two treasured sisters: Janet Lindsay Williams of Columbia, South Carolina and Betty Jean Montgomery of Charlotte, North Carolina; three devoted brothers: George (Mary) Lindsay, Sr. of Laurens, South Carolina, Bernard (Pamela) Lindsay of Clinton, South Carolina and Erskine M. Lindsay, Jr. of McConnells, South Carolina; two cherished aunts Gladys Simpson of Clinton, South Carolina and Imogene Henderson of Laurens, South Carolina; one caring uncle, Willie James Henderson of Laurens, South Carolina; a steadfast and special friend, Walton Walls of Sparta, Georgia. Ernestine was also surrounded by many loving nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family and friends who will miss her dearly and cherish her memory.

Ernestine's father and husband, Clyde Dunbar met her at Heaven's door, as they had gone ahead to Glory.

"Goodbyes are only for those who love with their eyes; because for those who love with their heart and soul...there is no such thing as separation."
