Life's Journey

WYMAN WYATT, JR.

Wyman Wyatt Jr., born September 1, 1943, to the late Wyman Wyatt Sr. and Lillie B. Caldwell in Newberry, South Carolina was called home for his eternal rest on March 22, 2019, surrounded in love by his entire family.

“Wyatt”, as he was called, attended and graduated East New York Vocational and Technical High School in June of 1961. After graduating high school, he joined and proudly served the United States Air Force in April 1962. He worked as an Aircraft Mechanic in-service and after his Honourable discharge from the military. During his service he received an Expert Marksmanship Ribbon and status as a Vietnam Veteran.

It was in New York City that he met and married the love of his life, Mary Richbow on March 16, 1968. She was his “Bae Bae”, and he was her “Bucko”. They lived and loved, starting their family in New York City, eventually moving to Washington, DC before finally returning to South Carolina in 2006. They resided in Clinton, South Carolina. He took enormous pride in his family and his girls!

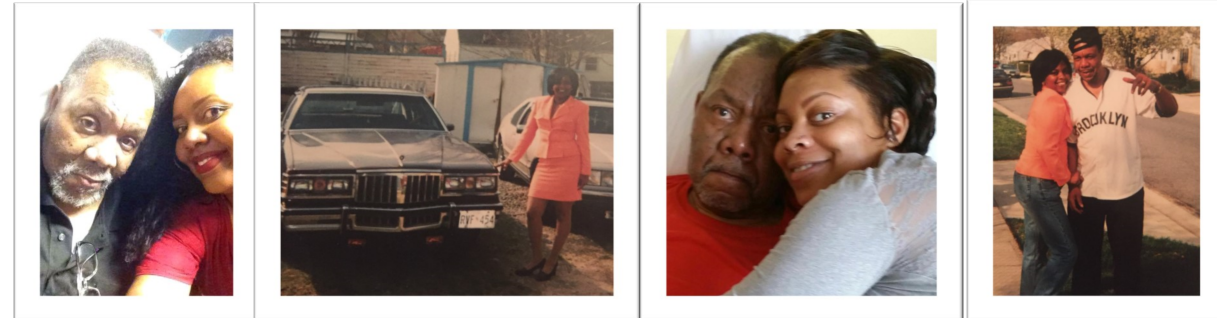

To know him was to know he loved his cars! From the Cadillac El Dorado, Pontiac Bonneville, Chevy Blazer, on up to his last one “Black Beauty”, a Chevy Avalanche and several other cars throughout the years. Wyatt could drive ANYTHING with wheels and did! He also took great pride in gardening, spending countless hours perfecting and landscaping his yard and his home.

Wyatt was a huge lover of music! He loved his Oldies but Goodies, Soul and Gospel. You could see him at anytime, plucking at his imaginary bass guitar and singing in his deep baritone voice. He proudly sang with the famous Kingsmen Choir at Ebenezer A.M.E. Church in Fort Washington, Maryland under the direction of Stellar Award Winner, Byron Cage and the Pastoral leadership of the Reverend Dr. Grainger and Reverend Dr. JoAnn Browning.

Blooms

I'd trade the blooms on that tree, just to see you smile at me.
I'd trade the song of the birds, just to hear you say another word.
I'd trade the clouds in the sky, just to see you Big, Brown Eyes

I watched that tree bloom as God prepared your place,
Each bloom caused a tear to run down my face.
The more it bloomed, the deeper your slumber,
You waited patiently here until God finally called your number.
To let you go was the hardest thing I've ever had to do,
I take comfort in knowing that you know how much I love you.

Daddy I begged that tree to stop its blooms,
But now I understand that God was decorating your mansion, room by room.
You were only a seed here, now a perfect Bloom in the sky,
Flowers bloom only in their season, they never truly die.

Though he was baptized at the tender age of twelve at Belmont Church in Kinards, South Carolina, it was at Ebenezer A.M.E. Church that he began to fully walk in the ways and teachings of Jesus Christ. Accepting Christ as his Lord and personal Saviour, teaching his family the will and the ways of the Lord became his most important thing in life.

He will forever be missed as Son, Husband, Daddy, Granddad, Pop-Pop, Junior, June Bug, and Pops, but all could agree on Cool Poppa Wyatt!

Wyatt was preceded in death by his grandparents, Clate Angelina Martin Miller and George "Wyman J" Miller of Clinton, South Carolina.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving mother, Lillie Caldwell, an amazing wife of fifty-one years, Mary Wyatt "Bae Bae" of Clinton, South Carolina; five amazing daughters: Donna L. Wyatt, Theresa M. Ellington "Tee Tee" (Arthur) of Clinton, Maryland, Patricia K. Wyatt "Trish" (Willie Carter) of Clinton South Carolina, Angela M. Wyatt "Budda Butt" (Jakheam Rice) of Clinton, South Carolina, Teala T. Riggins "Misty" and Mother, Medean Dawson, (LaConty) of Woodbridge, Virginia; six beautiful grandchildren: Deja A. Wyatt "Day Day", Diego G. Washington "My Boy", MyaJoy S. Trent "My My", Destin R. Wyatt Rice "Des Des", Kamani Riggins, "Mani", and 'Khloe Riggins "Klo Klo"; one rambunctious great grandson, Amari D. Lindsay; one special godson, Steven Head; honorary sons, Mark Trent and Gregory Washington; honorary daughter, Carol White and grand-daughter, Katy Washington; and countless nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members and friends.

Precious Memories

Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside still waters. He restores my soul; He leads me in paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of my enemies; thou anoints my head with oil; my cup runs over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever. Selah!*
