

COWGIRL CREED

- * Dare to be a cowgirl
- * Buck the rules
- * Stay balanced in the saddle
- * Ride the trail of adventure
- * Dream as big as Texas
- * Be tough but feminine
- * Attack life like it's a 1000 lb. steer
- * Saddle your own horse
- * Rein in your fears
- * Dress for success the cowgirl way
- * Ride high in the saddle
- * Ride high but stay grounded
- * Give others a leg up
- * Always get back on the horse
- * Recharge your cowgirl spirit
- * Die with your boots on

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

He will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces. The reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken it.

Isaiah 25:8

We, the family of Ramona Corbin-Garrett, are sincerely grateful to our family and friends for your love, prayers and acts of kindness during our time of bereavement. It is during difficult times that you recognize the power of love and its ability to bring comfort in the midst of sorrow and despair.

OBITUARY

"A precious one from us is gone, a voice we love is stilled, A place is vacant in our hearts which can never be filled; and after a lonely heartache and many silent tears, but always a beautiful memory of one we love so dear."

Ramona Leah Corbin was born the second of eight children born to Mr. Kenneth Corbin, Sr. and Mrs. Clara Odell Corbin. On Thursday, April 11, 2019 the trumpets blew and the angels started to shout awaiting the arrival of Ramona. Sadly, her parents and grandparents along with her brothers, Roosevelt G. Barkley, Arthur Odell Corbin and Kevin Brian Corbin preceded her in death resting in God awaiting a resurrection to life. John 5: 28-29

Raye or Mona, as she was affectionately called received her education in the Philadelphia school system. She was always very adventurous and a lover of all animals. She cared for a variety of pets including dogs, cats, birds, guinea pigs, rabbits, ferrets, rats, a squirrel, horses, a black panther and snakes. Raye was once locked out of the house for days because she brought home a six foot boa constrictor in a box. She saw absolutely nothing wrong with keeping a snake in the house even though her mother, Topsy, was deathly terrified of snakes.

March 16, 1977 was a very special day for Mona. She welcomed her son and only child, Jonathan Corbin. Jonathan gave her eight beautiful grandchildren: Imoona, Byette', Attiba, Janierah, Janiah, Dondria, Jonathan and Johnae.

In the early nineties, Ramona relocated to South Carolina to care for her grandfather, Odell Garrett. She was employed with Colgate and later Benore Logistics.

In addition to her loving son and grandchildren, Ramona Corbin-Garrett leaves precious memories to: her brother, Ervin Kenneth Corbin, Jr.; her sisters: Kimberly Corbin, Tressa Nicole Corbin Rhoda Corbin and Crystal Singletary; many nieces, nephews, other extended family and friends.

*And He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be now more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Revelation 21:4
