

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

When it seemed our loss was too great to endure, we looked up and friends and family were there. You comforted us and shared in our grief. Thank you for extending so much love and support to our family.

DON'T CRY FOR ME

Don't cry for me,
I will be okay.
Heaven is my home now,
and this is where I'll stay.
Don't cry for me,
I'm where I belong.
I want you to be happy
and try to stay strong.
Don't cry for me,
It was just my time.
But I will see you someday
on the other side.
Don't cry for me,
I am not alone,
The angels are with me
to welcome me home.
Don't cry for me,
for I have no fear.
All my pain is gone,
and Jesus took my tears.
Don't cry for me,
this is not the end.
I'll be waiting here for you,
when we meet again.

A JOURNEY OF REMEMBRANCE

Mr. Clyde Jacks, Jr. was born into time on September 17, 1947 to the parentage of Mr. Clyde and Mrs. Louise Jacks, Sr. He was educated in the public schools of Laurens County and was a 1968 graduate of Bell Street High School. Clyde continued his education at Piedmont Technical College where he earned an Associates Degree in Welding.

Mr. Jacks accepted Christ as his personal Savior at an early age. He was a faithful member of Saint Vaughnville Baptist Church in Chappells, South Carolina where he served as a deacon and enjoyed singing with the Male Chorus.

Mr. Clyde Jacks, Jr. was received into eternity on Monday, May 20, 2019. We believe that he was welcomed in Heaven by his Lord and Savior, his parents and grandparents, his sister, Joann Jacks Gilliam and his brother Jimmy Lewis Jacks.

Clyde is survived by his loving wife of forty-nine years, Lola M. Jacks of the home; his children, Gary L. Jacks of the home, Angela M. Jacks and Justine M. Jade both of Columbia, South Carolina; three grandchildren: Tamira Jacks of the home, MyShonda Jacks of Laurens, South Carolina and Cameron Collins of Columbia, South Carolina; three sisters-in-law: Sarah (Edward) Curenton of Cross Hill, South Carolina, Nancy (Rick) McCarrell of Greenville, South Carolina and Mary Jacks of Clinton, South Carolina; two brothers-in-law, Bobby Gilliam of Cross Keys, South Carolina and Theodore (Margaret) Payne of Clinton, South Carolina; and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members and friends.

"There are some who bring a light so great to the world that even after they have gone the light remains."
